Application Instructions:

1. Applications for the award will be accepted from or on behalf of any Oklahoma elementary or secondary (PK-12) school that has made significant contributions in the teaching of citizenship to students.
2. Any Oklahoma school is eligible that has not received the Oklahoma Supreme Court School of the Year Award in the previous three years. A school that received the award for the 2004-05 school year or before is eligible for the 2008-09 award.
3. Each application must include: (A) This application sheet, filled out entirely, (B) A one- to two-page summary of the school's recent activities in citizenship education, and (C) Three letters of recommendation from individuals who are knowledgeable about the school's contributions to citizenship education.
4. Each application should also include other pertinent materials in support of the application. These may include (but are not limited to) newspaper articles, resolutions, relevant honors received by the school, photos, materials produced by students or teachers, and/or descriptions of programs and speakers. All materials submitted should reflect recent work by the school in promoting citizenship education.
5. No application may exceed 15 pages. All materials must be on unbound 8-1/2" x 11" pages and must be readily reproducible for distribution to the selection committee.
6. Applications must be received by the LRE department on or before Wednesday, January 14, 2009. Late applications will not be considered. All application packets are non-returnable. Send applications to: OBA/Law-related Education Department - 1901 N. Lincoln Blvd. - Oklahoma City, OK 73105.
