

LOGO AND TRADEMARK:
(1) Use of Logo and Trademark

Policy on use of OBA Logo and Trademark

All OBA committees, sections, divisions or other member groups utilizing a logo or trade mark on any publication, materials or other items of any nature, kind or description shall use the OBA logo or trademark. For the purposes of this policy, "publication" shall mean any written, electronic, digital or any other method or means utilized to replicate or copy and present the logo to any other person or persons for viewing. The OBA logo or trademark is identified as the scales of justice inside a circle with the words "Oklahoma Bar Association" following the curvature of the circle. A copy of it is set forth below:

OBA committees, sections, divisions or other member groups shall not use a separate, different or distinct logo or trademark in conjunction with the OBA logo or trademark. Any section, committee or division wishing to alter, modify or change, or use the OBA logo or trademark making its appearance different than as it is set forth above may do so only after being given written approval by the Executive Director of the OBA. All rights to the use of the OBA logo in the form set forth above or any altered form are the exclusive property of the OBA. No member, section, committee, division or other member group shall have the right to use, copy, reproduce or give permission for any person or entity to use, copy or reproduce the logo without express permission from the OBA.
