

PUBLICATION REVIEW POLICY

Any publication either in print or electronic form (including but not limited to: pamphlets, brochures, articles, videos, webcasts, podcasts and books) or communication through any medium represented to be published or communicated on behalf of the Oklahoma Bar Association shall be submitted to the Executive Director, or his designee, for review and approval prior to distribution. The Executive Director, or his designee, has the discretion to approve or prohibit the distribution of any such material.

This policy shall apply to all committees, sections and divisions of the Oklahoma Bar Association in regards to any publication or communication intended for distribution to the public at large or person or groups outside of the membership of the OBA. The review and approval of the Executive Director is not necessary for committee or section reports, agendas or minutes, intended for distribution within the membership of the Association.

Approved by BOG March 27, 1998; Amended by BOG 06/22/12.
