

SCBD #5965

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA

ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY COMMISSION

AS COMPILED BY THE

OFFICE OF THE GENERAL COUNSEL

OF THE

OKLAHOMA BAR ASSOCIATION

January 1, 2012 through December 31, 2012

Filed with the Oklahoma Supreme Court, February 1, 2013

Pursuant to the provisions of Rule 14.1, Rules Governing Disciplinary Proceedings (RPDP), 5 O.S. 2011 ch. 1, app. 1-A, this is the Annual Report of grievances and complaints received and processed for 2012 by the Professional Responsibility Commission and the Office of the General Counsel of the Oklahoma Bar Association.

THE PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY COMMISSION:

The Commission is composed of seven persons - five lawyer and two non-lawyer members. The attorney members are nominated for rotating three-year terms by the President of the Association subject to the approval of the Board of Governors. The two non-lawyer members are appointed by the Speaker of the Oklahoma House of Representatives and the President Pro Tempore of the Oklahoma Senate, respectively. No member can serve more than two consecutive terms. Terms expire on December 31st at the conclusion of the three-year term.

Lawyer members serving on the Professional Responsibility Commission during 2012 were Melissa Griner DeLacerda, Stillwater; Angela Ailles Bahm, Oklahoma City; William R. Grimm, Tulsa; Jon K. Parsley, Guymon; and Stephen D. Beam, Weatherford. Non-Lawyer members were Tony R. Blasier, Oklahoma City; and Debra Thompson, Carney. Melissa Griner DeLacerda served as Chairperson and Tony R. Blasier served as Vice-Chairperson. Commission members serve without compensation but are reimbursed for actual travel expenses.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

The Professional Responsibility Commission considers and investigates any alleged ground for discipline, or alleged incapacity, of any lawyer called to its attention, or upon its own motion, and takes such action as deemed appropriate, including holding hearings, receiving testimony, and issuing and serving subpoenas.

Under the supervision of the Professional Responsibility Commission, the Office of the General Counsel investigates all matters involving alleged misconduct or incapacity of any lawyer called to the attention of the General Counsel by grievance or otherwise, and reports to the Professional Responsibility Commission the results of investigations made by or at the direction of the General Counsel. The Professional Responsibility Commission then determines the disposition of grievances or directs the instituting of a formal complaint for alleged misconduct or personal incapacity of an attorney with the Oklahoma Supreme Court. The attorneys in the Office of the General Counsel prosecute all proceedings under the Rules Governing Disciplinary Proceedings, supervise the investigative process, and represent the Oklahoma Bar Association at all reinstatement proceedings.

VOLUME OF GRIEVANCES:

During 2012, the Office of the General Counsel received 279 formal grievances involving 181 attorneys and 1149 informal grievances involving 891 attorneys. In total, 1428 grievances were received against 979 attorneys. The total number of attorneys differs because some attorneys received both formal and informal grievances. In addition, the Office handled 493 items of general correspondence, which is mail not considered to be a grievance against an attorney.

On January 1, 2012, 251 formal grievances were carried over from the previous year. During 2012, 279 new formal grievances were opened for investigation. The carryover accounted for a total caseload of 530 formal investigations pending throughout 2012. Of those grievances, 273 investigations were completed by the Office of the General Counsel and presented for review to the Professional Responsibility Commission. Therefore, 257 investigations were pending on December 31, 2012.

The time required for investigating and concluding each grievance varies depending on the seriousness and complexity of the allegations and the availability of witnesses and documents. The Professional Responsibility Commission requires the Office of the General Counsel to report monthly on all informal and formal grievances received and all investigations completed and ready for disposition by the Commission. In addition, the Commission receives a monthly statistical report on the pending caseload. The Board of Governors is advised statistically each month of the actions taken by the Professional Responsibility Commission.

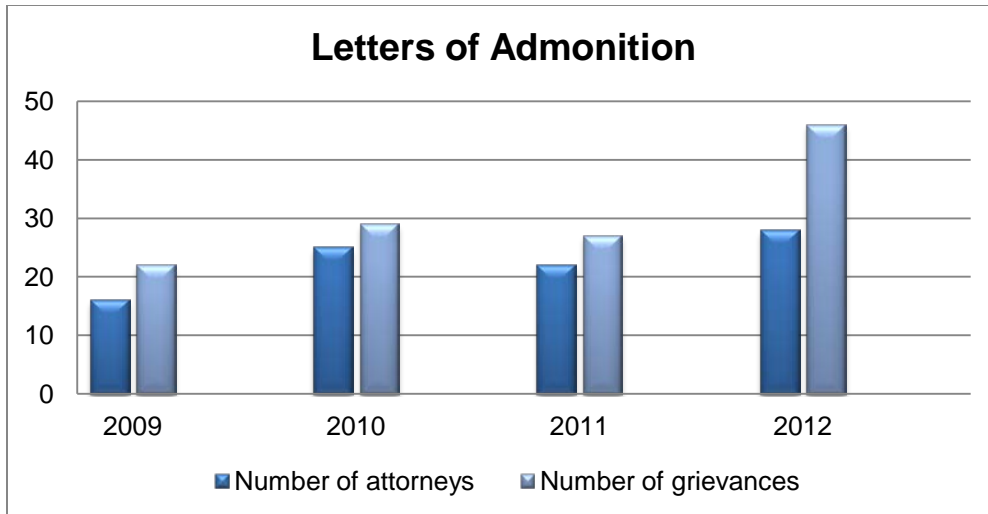

DISCIPLINE BY THE PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY COMMISSION:

1. Formal Charges. During 2012, the Commission voted the filing of formal disciplinary charges against 12 lawyers involving 29 grievances. In addition, the Commission also oversaw the filing of nine Rule 7 matters filed with the Chief Justice of the Oklahoma Supreme Court.
2. Private Reprimands. Pursuant to Rule 5.3(c) of the Rules Governing Disciplinary Proceedings, the Professional Responsibility Commission has the authority to impose private reprimands, with the consent of the attorney, in matters of less serious misconduct or if mitigating factors reduce the sanction to be imposed. During 2012, the Commission issued private reprimands to 20 attorneys involving 30 grievances.

3. Letters of Admonition. During 2012, the Commission issued letters of admonition to 28 attorneys involving 46 grievances cautioning that the conduct of the attorney was dangerously close to a violation of a disciplinary rule wherein the Commission believed warranted a warning rather than discipline.

4. Dismissals. The Commission dismissed 166 grievances where the investigation revealed lack of merit or loss of jurisdiction over the respondent attorney. Loss of jurisdiction included the death of the attorney, the resignation of the attorney pending disciplinary proceedings, a continuing lengthy suspension or disbarment of the respondent attorney, or due to the attorney being stricken from membership for non-compliance with MCLE requirements or non-payment of dues.
5. Diversion Program. The Commission may also refer respondent attorneys to the Discipline Diversion Program where remedial measures are taken to ensure that any deficiency in the representation of a client does not occur in the future. During 2012, the Commission referred 30 attorneys to be admitted into the Diversion Program for conduct involving 53 grievances.

The Discipline Diversion Program is tailored to the individual circumstances of the participating attorney and the misconduct alleged. Oversight of the program is by the OBA Ethics Counsel with the OBA Management Assistance Program Director involved in programming. Program options include: Trust Account School, Professional Responsibility/Ethics School, Law Office Management Training, Communication and Client Relationship Skills, and Professionalism in the Practice of Law class. In addition to one or more of these instructional classes, the following resources can be made a part of the individual's Diversion Program Agreement: Management Assistance Program Office Review, Lawyers Helping Lawyers Assistance Program, Medical/Psychological Monitoring and Mentor/Peer Referral. Instructional courses are taught by OBA Ethics Counsel Travis Pickens and OBA Management Assistance Program Director Jim Calloway.

As a result of the Trust Account Overdraft Reporting Notifications, the Office of the General Counsel is now able to monitor when attorneys encounter difficulty with basic accounting procedures and management of their IOLTA accounts. Upon recommendation of the Office of the General Counsel, the Professional Responsibility Commission may place those individuals in a tailored program designed to address basic trust accounting procedures.

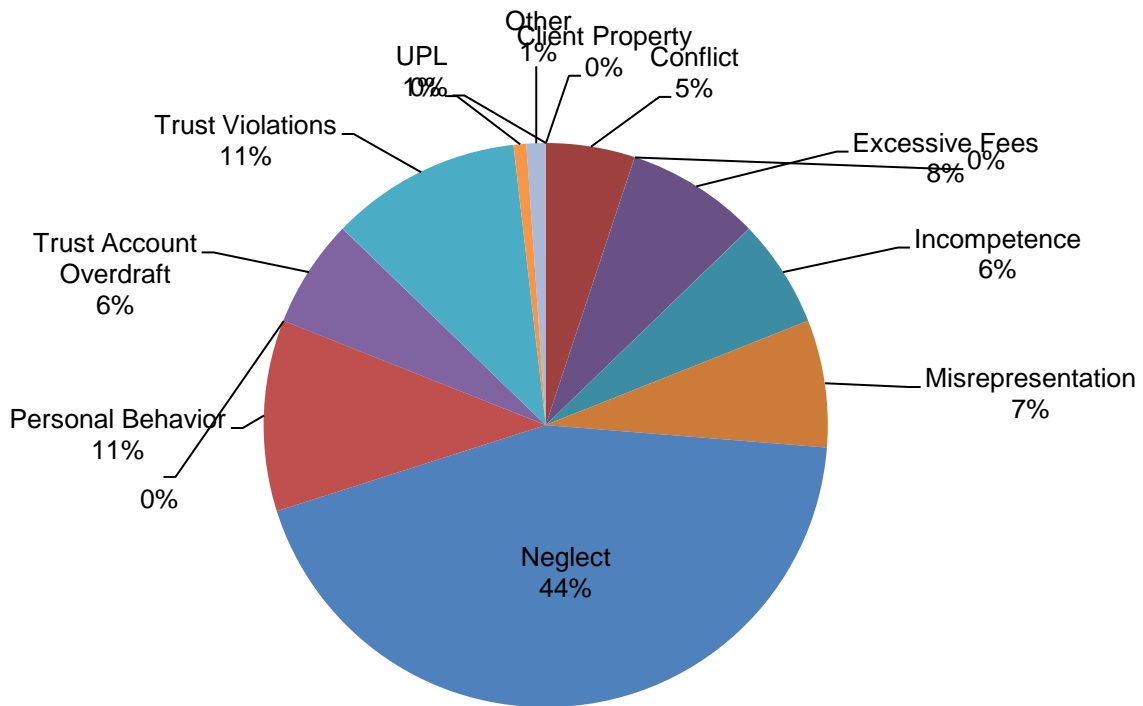

2012 Attorney Participation in Diversion Program Curriculum
Law Office Management Training:	17 Attorneys
Communication and Client Relationship Skills:	19 Attorneys
Professionalism in the Practice of Law:	3 Attorneys
Professional Responsibility / Ethics School:	17 Attorneys
Client Trust Account School:	12 Attorneys

SURVEY OF GRIEVANCES:

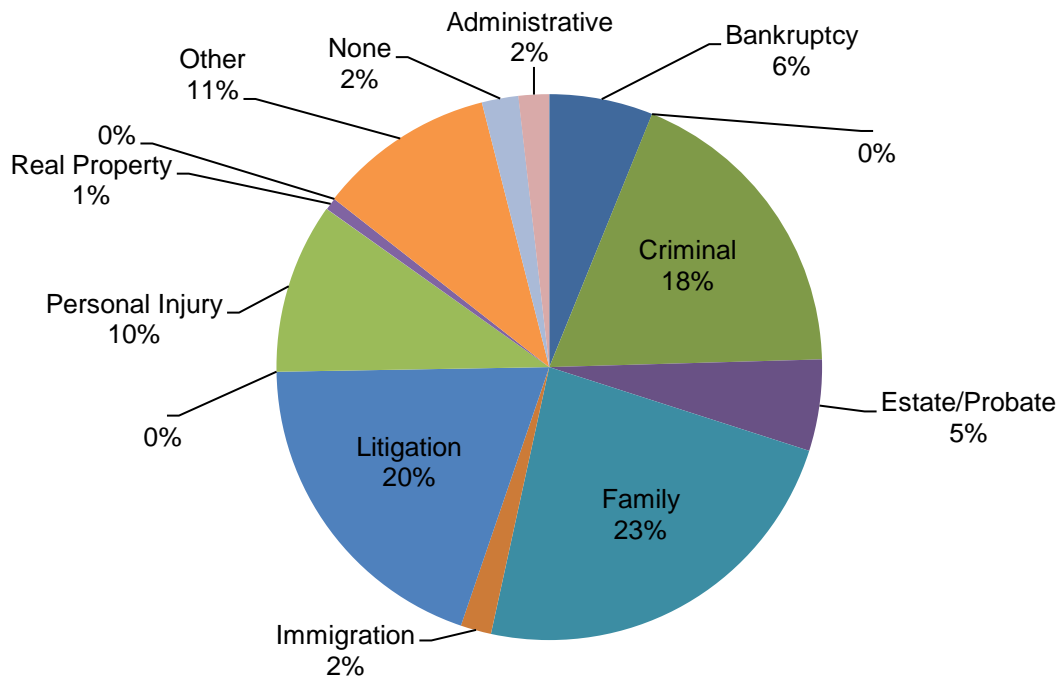

In order to better inform the Supreme Court, the bar and the public of the nature of the grievances received, the numbers of attorneys complained against, and the areas of attorney misconduct involved, the following information is presented.

Total membership of the Oklahoma Bar Association as of December 31, 2012 was 17,232 attorneys. The total number of members include 11,843 males and 5,389 females. Formal and informal grievances were submitted against 979 attorneys. Therefore, less than six percent of the attorneys licensed to practice law by the Oklahoma Supreme Court received a grievance in 2012.

A breakdown of the type of alleged attorney misconduct alleged in the 279 formal grievances received by the Office of the General Counsel in 2012 is as follows:

Of the 279 formal grievances, the area of practice is as follows:

The number of years in practice of the 181 attorneys receiving formal grievances is as follows:

The largest number of grievances received were against attorneys who have been in practice for 26 years or more. Considering the total number of practicing attorneys, the largest number have been in practice 26 years or more.

Of the 279 formal grievances filed against 181 attorneys in 2012, 87 are attorneys in urban areas and 90 attorneys live and practice in rural areas. Four of the grievances were filed against attorneys licensed in Oklahoma but practicing out of state.

There were 19 attorney discipline cases pending with the Supreme Court of Oklahoma as of January 1, 2012. During 2012, 14 new formal complaints, nine Rule 7 Notices and three Resignations Pending Disciplinary Proceedings were filed and two complaints were remanded back to the Professional Responsibility Tribunal for a total of 47 cases filed and/or pending during the year. On December 31, 2012, 22 cases remained pending before the Oklahoma Supreme Court.

REINSTATEMENTS:

There were nine active reinstatement cases filed with the Oklahoma Supreme Court as of January 1, 2012. There were eight new petitions for reinstatement filed in 2012. In 2012, the Supreme Court approved nine reinstatements, dismissed one and three were withdrawn. On December 31, 2012, there were four petitions for reinstatement filed and pending before the Oklahoma Supreme Court.

TRUST ACCOUNT OVERDRAFT REPORTING:

The Office of the General Counsel under the supervision of the Commission has implemented the Trust Account Overdraft Reporting requirements of Rule 1.15(j), Oklahoma Rules of Professional Conduct, 5 O.S. Supp. 2008, ch. 1, app. 3-A. Trust Account Overdraft Reporting Agreements have been submitted by and approved for depository institutions. In 2012, 184 notices of overdraft of a client trust account were received by the Office of the General Counsel. Notification triggers a general inquiry to the attorney requesting an explanation for the deficient account. Based upon the response, an investigation may be commenced. Repeated overdrafts due to negligent accounting practices have resulted in referral to the Discipline Diversion Program for instruction in proper trust accounting procedures.

UNAUTHORIZED PRACTICE OF LAW:

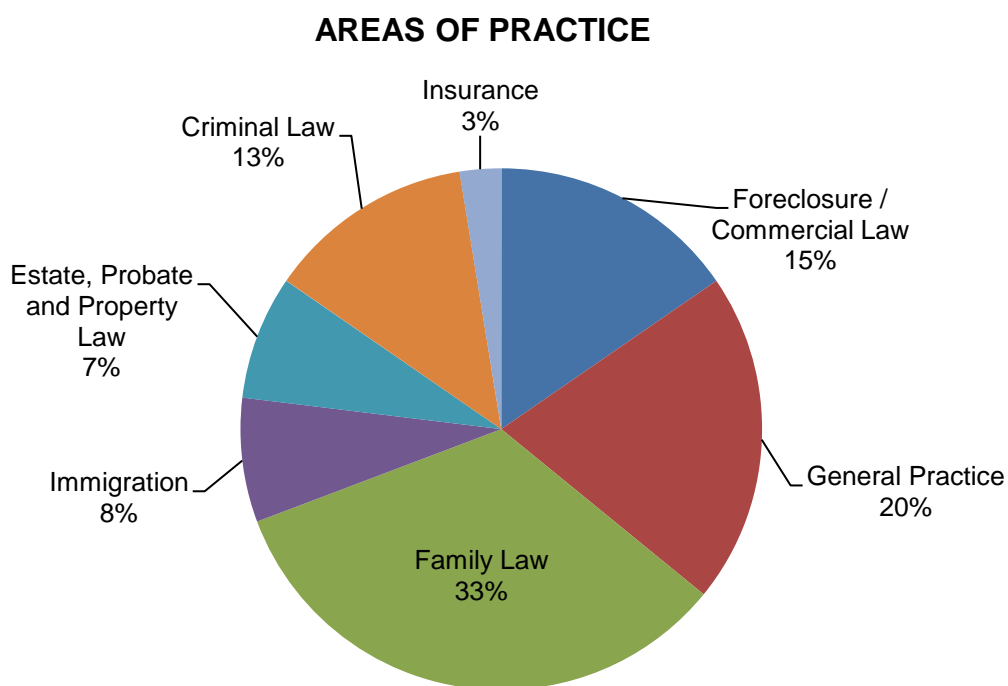

Rule 5.1(b), Rules Governing Disciplinary Proceedings, 5. O.S. 2001 ch. 1 app. 1-A, authorizes the Office of the General Counsel to investigate allegations of the unauthorized practice of law (UPL) by non-lawyers.

REQUESTS FOR INVESTIGATION:

In 2012, this office received 41 complaints for investigation of the unauthorized practice of law. The Office of the General Counsel fielded many additional inquiries regarding the unauthorized practice of law that are not reflected in this summary.

PRACTICE AREAS:

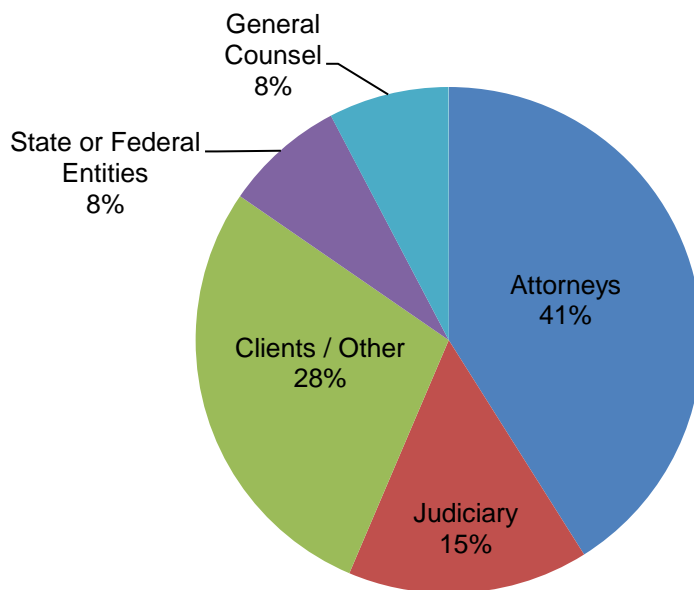

Allegations of the unauthorized practice of law encompass various areas of law. Most complaints concern individuals assisting pro se litigants in divorce actions. In the chart below, the “General Practice” category denotes non-lawyer individuals that advertise or allegedly perform legal services relating to family law, criminal law (including appellate relief), civil rights, guardianships, small claims, wills, trusts, estate matters, business entities, property issues and name change petitions. The remaining categories are reserved for non-lawyer individuals that advertise or allegedly perform legal services in a specific area of law.

REFERRAL SOURCES:

Requests for investigations of allegations of the unauthorized practice of law stem from multiple sources. Oklahoma attorneys and attorneys from other jurisdictions are the most frequent source for requests for investigation. Judicial referrals, requests from State and Federal agencies, harmed members of the public, the Professional Responsibility Commission and the Office of the General Counsel also report alleged instances of individuals engaging in the unauthorized practice of law.

REQUESTS TO INVESTIGATE: REFERRAL SOURCES

RESPONDENTS:

Most requests for investigation into allegations of the unauthorized practice of law concern paralegals (or paralegal firms) and non-lawyers. For purposes of this summary, the category “non-lawyer” refers to an individual who does not advertise as a paralegal, but performs various legal tasks for their customers. Recently, most “non-lawyers” claim to have expertise in the foreclosure process. The “Former Lawyers” category includes lawyers who have been disbarred, stricken, resigned their law license pending disciplinary proceedings or otherwise voluntarily surrendered their license to practice law in the State of Oklahoma.

RESPONDENTS ALLEGEDLY PARTICIPATING IN UPL

ENFORCEMENT:

In 2012, this office sent 10 cease and desist letters after investigation determined that that unauthorized practice of law was occurring. Of the 10 cases, seven resulted in resolution where the conduct ceased.

CLIENT SECURITY FUND:

The Clients’ Security Fund was established in 1965 by Court Rules of the Oklahoma Supreme Court. The Fund is administered by the Clients’ Security Fund Committee which is comprised of 17 members, 14 lawyer members and 3 non-lawyers, who are appointed in staggered three-year terms by the OBA President with approval from the Board of Governors. The Fund furnishes a means of reimbursement to clients for financial losses occasioned by dishonest acts of lawyers. It is also intended to protect the reputation of lawyers in general from the consequences of dishonest acts of a very few. The Board of Governors budgets and appropriates $100,000.00 each year to the Clients' Security Fund for payment of approved claims. In years when the approved amount exceeds the amount available, the amount approved for each claimant will be reduced in proportion on a prorata basis until the total amount paid for all claims in that year is $100,000.00. In 2012, the amount approved for each claimant was reduced by 14 percent. The Office of the General Counsel provides staff services for the Committee. In 2012, the Office of the General Counsel investigated and presented to the Committee 30 new claims. The Committee approved 9 claims, denied 15 claims and continued 6 claims into the following year for further investigation.

In 2012, the Office of the General Counsel also processed 3 waiver requests of the application fee. PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY TRIBUNAL

SCBD No. 5966

Introduction

The Professional Responsibility Tribunal (PRT) was established by order of the Supreme Court of Oklahoma in 1981, under the Rules Governing Disciplinary Proceedings, 5O.S. 2001, ch. 1, app. 1-A (RGDP). The primary function of the PRT is to conduct hearings on complaints filed against lawyers in formal disciplinary and personal incapacity proceedings, and on petitioners for reinstatement to the practice of law. A formal disciplinary proceeding is initiated by written complaint which a specific is pleading filed with the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. Petitioners for reinstatement are filed with the Clerk of the Supreme Court.

Composition and Appointment

The PRT is a 21-member panel of Masters, 14 of whom are lawyers and 7 whom are non-lawyers. The lawyers on the PRT are active members in good standing of the OBA. Lawyer members are appointed by the OBA President, with the approval of the Board of Governors. Non-lawyer members are appointed by the Governor of the State of Oklahoma. Each member is appointed to serve a three-year term, and limited to two terms. Terms end on June 30th of the last year of a member's service.

Pursuant to Rule 4.2 of the Rules Governing Disciplinary Proceedings ("RGDP"), members are required to meet annually to address organizational and other matters touching upon the PRT's purpose and objective. They also elect a Chief Master and Vice-Chief Master, both of whom serve for a one-year term. PRT members receive no compensation for their services, but they are entitled to be reimbursed for travel and other reasonable expenses incidental to the performance of their duties.

The lawyer members of the PRT who served during all or part of 2012 were: Jeremy J. Beaver, McAlester; Dietmar K. Caudle, Lawton; Lorenzo Thurmond Collins, Ardmore; Patrick T. Cornell, Clinton; Joe Crosthwait, Midwest City; Deirdre Dexter, Sand Springs; Luke Gaither, Henryetta; Tom Gruber, Oklahoma City; Cody B. Hodgden, Woodward; William G. LaSorsa, Tulsa; Susan B. Loving, Edmond; Kelli M. Masters, Oklahoma City; Stephen R. McNamara, Tulsa; Mary Quinn-Cooper, Tulsa; F. Douglas Shirley, Watonga; Louis Don Smitherman, Oklahoma City; Neal E. Stauffer, Tulsa; and James M. Sturdivant, Tulsa.

The non-lawyer members who served during all or part of 2012 were: Steven W. Beebe, Duncan; Norman Cooper, Norman; Christian C. Crawford, Stillwater; James Richard Daniel, Oklahoma City; Kirk V. Pittman, Seiling; Bill Pyeatt, Norman; Susan Savage, Tulsa; John Thompson, Nichols Hills; and Mary Lee Townsend, Tulsa. As of December 31, one non-lawyer member vacancy existed.

The annual meeting was held on June 30, 2012, at the Oklahoma Bar Association offices. Agenda items included a visit by the General Counsel¹, recognition of new members and members whose terms had ended, and discussions concerning the work of the PRT. Patrick Cornell was elected Chief Master and Lorenzo Collins was elected Vice-Chief Master, each to serve a one-year term.

Governance

All proceedings that come before the PRT are governed by the RGDP. However, proceedings and the reception of evidence are, by reference, governed generally by the rules in civil proceedings, except as otherwise provided by the RGDP.

The PRT is authorized to adopt appropriate procedural rules which govern the conduct of the proceedings before it. Such rules include, but are not limited to, provisions for requests for disqualification of members of the PRT assigned to hear a particular proceeding.

Action Taken After Notice Received

After notice of the filing of a disciplinary complaint or reinstatement petition is received, the Chief Master (or Vice-Chief Masters if the Chief Master is unavailable) selects three (3) PRT members (two lawyers and one non-lawyer) to serve as a Trial Panel of Masters. The Chief Master designates one of the two lawyer-members to serve as Presiding Master. Two of the three Masters constitute a quorum for purposes of conducting hearings, ruling on and receiving evidence, and rendering findings of fact and conclusions of law.

In disciplinary proceedings, after the respondent's time to answer expires, the complaint and the answer, if any, are then lodged with the Clerk of the Supreme Court. The complaint and all further filings and proceedings with respect to the case then become a matter of public record.

The Chief Master notifies the respondent or petitioner, as the case may be, and General Counsel of the appointment and membership of a Trial Panel and the time and place for hearing. In disciplinary proceedings, a hearing is to be held not less than 30 days nor more than 60 days from date of appointment of the Trial Panel. Hearings on reinstatement petitioners are to be held not less than 60 days nor more than 90 days after the petition has been filed. Extensions of these periods, however, may be granted by the Chief Master for good cause shown.

After a proceeding is placed in the hands of a Trial Panel, it exercises general supervisory control over all pre-hearing and hearing issues. Members of a Trial Panel function in the same manner as a court by maintaining their independence and impartiality in all proceedings. Except in purely ministerial, scheduling, or procedural matters, Trial Panel members do not engage in ex parte communications with the parties. Depending on the complexity of the proceeding, the Presiding Master may hold status conferences and issue scheduling orders as a means of narrowing the issues and streamlining the case for trial. Parties may conduct discovery in the same manner as in civil cases.

Hearings are open to the public and all proceedings before a Trial Panel are stenographically recorded and transcribed. Oaths or affirmations may be administered, and subpoenas may be issued, by the Presiding Master, or by any officer authorized by law to administer an oath or issue subpoenas. Hearings, which resemble bench trials, are directed by the Presiding Master.

Respondents in disciplinary hearings or incapacity proceedings and petitioners in reinstatement proceedings are entitled to be represented by counsel.

Trial Panel Reports

After the conclusion of a hearing, the Trial Panel prepares a written report to the Supreme Court. The report includes findings of facts on all pertinent issues, conclusions of law, and a recommendation as to the appropriate measure of discipline to be imposed or, in the case of a reinstatement petitioner, whether it should be granted. In all proceedings, any recommendation is based on a finding that the complainant or petitioner, as the case may be, has or has not satisfied the “clear and convincing” standard of proof. The Trial Panel report further includes a recommendation as to whether costs of investigation, the record, and proceedings should be imposed on the respondent or petitioner. Also filed in the case are all pleadings, transcript of proceeding, and exhibits offered at the hearing.

Trial Panel reports and recommendations are advisory only. The Supreme Court has exclusive jurisdiction over all disciplinary and reinstatement matters. It has the constitutional and non-delegable power to regulate both the practice of law and legal practitioners. Accordingly, the Supreme Court is bound by neither the findings nor the recommendation of action, as its review of each proceeding is de novo.

Annual Reports

Rule 14.1, RGDP, requires the PRT to report annually on its activities for the preceding year. As a function of its organization, the PRT operates from July 1 through June 30. However, annual reports are based on the calendar year. Therefore, this Annual Report covers the activities of the PRT for the preceding year, 2012.

Activity in 2012

At the beginning of the calendar year, 2 disciplinary and 2 reinstatement proceedings were pending before the PRT as carry-over matters from a previous year. Generally, a matter is considered “pending” from the time the PRT receives notice of its filing until the Trial Panel report is filed. Certain events reduce or extend the pending status of a proceeding, such as the resignation of a respondent or the remand of a matter for additional hearing. In matters involving alleged personal incapacity, orders by the Supreme Court of interim suspension, or suspension until reinstated, operate to either postpone a hearing on discipline or remove the matter from the PRT docket.

In regard to new matters, the PRT received notice of the filing of 26 disciplinary complaints and 9 reinstatement petitions. Trial Panels conducted a total of 38 hearings; 29 in disciplinary proceedings and 9 in reinstatement proceedings.

On December 31, 2012, a total of 11 matters, 10 disciplinary and 1 reinstatement proceedings, were pending before the PRT.
