To fulfill OBA/CLE's educational objectives, written course materials and/or audio/videotapes of its programs are made available to interested persons and kept on file in OBA/CLE's offices for use by members, program faculty, and staff. Some materials provided in conjunction with speaker presentations at OBA/CLE's meetings are made available for purchase either as part of the entire set of materials provided at the meeting or as stand-alone materials available separately.

Please sign and return this consent form, which acknowledges OBA/CLE's use of your materials.

I grant to OBA/CLE the following non-exclusive rights:

To use, reproduce, distribute, display, creative derivative works based upon, transfer, sell, or otherwise use for commercial purposes, in whole or in part, in whatever manner and in whatever medium, whether now known or later developed, including but not limited to print, disk, flashdrive, or the Internet, the material that I am submitting.

To use my name, image, likeness, voice or signature, or note my affiliation with OBA/CLE, in connection with the use, display, and promotion of my material.

I represent and warrant that:

The submitted material is owned and was created exclusively by me;

I may freely transfer the license rights described therein;

This agreement does not conflict with any other agreements I have entered into relating to my material and the material does not contain material that infringes on any proprietary rights or copyrights of others. If I have included copyrighted material, I have obtained written permission to reproduce that material.
