RULES FOR THE COMMITTEE ON JUDICIAL ELECTIONS

(WITH PROPOSED AMENDMENTS APPROVED BY THE OKLAHOMA BAR ASSOCIATION BOARD OF GOVERNORS ON OCT. 12, 2018)

In order to maintain the independence, integrity and impartiality of the judiciary in the State of Oklahoma, the Supreme Court has adopted the Code of Judicial Conduct which governs the conduct of candidates for judicial office under its exclusive supervisory and administrative power over the inferior courts, as provided under Article VII of the Oklahoma Constitution. To facilitate the enforcement of the Code, as it relates to judicial elections, the Supreme Court now establishes a Committee on Judicial Elections.

RULE 1. ORGANIZATION

A. ORGANIZATION. There is established a Committee on Judicial Elections. The Committee shall consist of nine (9) members. Three (3) members shall be members of the Oklahoma Bar Association, in good standing, who are not judges of a court of record. Three members shall be district judges or associate district judges with at least 10 years of service. These judges may be judges in active service or they may be retired judges with the required length of service before their retirement. Three members shall be lay persons.

B. APPOINTMENT. The Board of Governors of the Oklahoma Bar Association shall appoint the attorney members and the lay members of the committee. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court shall appoint the judge members. The terms of the initial appointments to the Committee shall be as follows: two attorney members, two judge members and one lay member shall be appointed for a term of four years; one attorney member, one judge member and two lay members shall be appointed for a term of eight (8) years. Following the initial appointments, the terms of service for the members of the Committee shall be for eight (8) years.

If a member of the Committee changes his or her status as a member of one of the three (3) categories of membership, the Committee member shall immediately submit his or her resignation from the Committee to the Chairperson of the Committee. The Chairperson of the Committee shall provide notice of resignation to the appointing authority for the affected category of membership. Within sixty (60) days the appointing authority shall appoint a new member of the Committee. The resignation of the former committee member shall not be effective until the replacement member is appointed. The replacement member shall be appointed for the remainder of the unexpired term of the former member and may be reappointed.

If a member of the committee resigns for a reason other than a change of eligibility status or death the procedure set out in the previous paragraph shall be followed in appointing a new committee member.

C. CHAIRPERSON. The chairperson and vice-chair person shall be elected by the members of the Committee from any of the three groups represented on the Committee. The term of office for the chairperson and vice-chair person shall be four (4) years, and these officers may be reelected for two additional terms. D. HEARING. The chairperson of the Hearing Panel shall conduct the hearing which may be in person or at the chairperson's discretion by teleconference or some other effective means which allows all parties and the panel to communicate directly with each other.

1. The parties shall have an opportunity to appear at the hearing in person and/or by counsel.

3. The parties may offer oral arguments in support of their positions.
4. The rules of evidence shall not be strictly enforced and the chairperson shall endeavor to conduct the proceedings in such a way as to ascertain the truth of the matter before the panel without allowing undue or duplicative proof.

E. EXPEDITED HEARING. If a complaint is filed within two weeks of an election in which the parties are involved, the panel chairperson may determine that an expedited hearing is necessary. If such an expedited hearing is determined to be necessary the panel chairperson, in the chairperson's sole discretion, shall set the date for the hearing and the time for filing a response to the complaint. All panel members and the parties shall be notified by e-mail or facsimile of the date and time for the expedited hearing and the time in which to respond to the complaint. The provision of Rule 3 C shall apply if no response is filed.

F. DETERMINATION. Following the hearing the panel shall determine if a violation(s) of Canon 4 have occurred and that the allegations warrant speedy intervention or, alternatively, that a violation(s) of Canon 4 has not occurred, and/or that the allegations do not warrant speedy intervention by the panel.

G. BURDEN OF PROOF AND EVIDENTIARY STANDARD. The party bringing the complaint shall have the burden of proof. The standard of evidence to be used by the panel in making its determination of whether a violation of the Rules of Judicial Conduct has occurred shall be by clear and convincing evidence.

H. HEARING PANEL'S REPORT. The panel shall issue a written report within two (2) business days after the hearing specifying the panel's determination. If a violation is found the report shall identify the rule(s) which has been violated and the conduct constituting the violation(s). A majority of the panel members must agree with the report and sign it. The report of the panel shall be transmitted to the parties orally, or by facsimile or by e-mail and copies shall be sent to the parties by overnight delivery.

I. WAIVER OF HEARING PROCEDURES. The hearing before the Hearing Panel may be waived if the Complaining Party, the Defending Party and the Hearing Panel agree to the waiver of the hearing. The waiver by the parties shall be in writing and sent by facsimile or e-mail to the Chair of the Hearing Panel. Each party shall submit his or her individual waiver to the panel chair. Following the receipt of the waivers by the parties the panel members and the parties may then confer in person or by a telephone conference in an attempt to resolve the complaint. If the complaint is resolved through the informal procedure the Hearing Panel may dismiss the complaint if it is determined there was no violation of Canon 4. If it is decided by the Hearing Panel there has been a violation of Canon 4, the panel may require any of the action provided for in Rule 3 J. The Hearing Panel shall provide oral notice of its decision to the parties and shall send a written decision by facsimile or e-mail to the parties and to the Chair of the Committee on Judicial Elections.

If the complaint is resolved through the waiver of the hearing procedure there is no right of appeal by either party.

J. CEASE AND DESIST ORDER. If the panel determines that a violation(s) of Canon 4 has occurred, it may issue a cease and desist order which identifies the rule(s) violated and the conduct determined to be a violation of Canon 4. The panel may direct the defending party-candidate to take appropriate remedial measures which may include:

1. Immediately cease the offending conduct;
2. Withdraw the offending material, if any, from public distribution and/or publication;
3. Publish a retraction in the specific media required by the panel;

5. Submit a signed written agreement of compliance within time certain;
6. Any other remedial measure deemed appropriate by the panel;
7. Any combination of the above remedial measures.

The order shall provide for a reasonable time as determined by the panel, within which a defending party-candidate must comply with the cease and desist order and the manner for establishing proof of such compliance. In setting the time for compliance with the cease and desist order the panel shall take into consideration the time remaining before the judicial election. Before publication the chairperson of the panel shall approve the wording of any retraction or apology required of a candidate.

If the defending party candidate does not comply with the cease and desist order, the panel may request that the Committee on Judicial Elections refer the matter in accordance with Rule 6 to the General Counsel of the Oklahoma Bar Association or to the Council on Judicial Complaints.

K. FINDING OF NO VIOLATION. If the panel's decision is that it does not believe that a violation(s) has occurred, the panel shall issue a decision that it has determined no violation has occurred. The complaining party shall have the opportunity to request an appellate hearing.

L. DISCLOSURE OF THE HEARING PANEL'S REPORT. ~~The Hearing Panel shall consider and determine if the report or any part of the report should be released to the public. In making the decision the Hearing Panel shall consider the requests of the parties and what is in the best interests of the public, but it shall be in the sole discretion of the Hearing Panel to make the decision to release or not release the report.~~ After the Hearing Panel has considered the complaint and made its report, if no appeal of the decision of Hearing Panel is filed pursuant to Rule 3N, the Hearing Panel will release the report to the public within five (5) business days after the filing of its report pursuant to Rule 3H. If the decision of the Hearing Panel is appealed, the Hearing Panel shall not release its report to the public.

M. CHANGE OF TIME LIMITS. The chairperson of the Hearing Panel, for good cause shown may shorten or extend the time limits set out in this rule.

The position paper shall set out the basis of the party's appeal and why there was or there was not a violation(s) of the Rules of Judicial Conduct. The defending party may commence such an appeal even though he or she has agreed to comply with a cease and desist order or other directive.

2. If the appeal is commenced the Hearing Panel will file with the Appellate Panel its decision, orders and/or directives and the original record of all materials filed with the Hearing Panel. This material together with the party's notice of appeal and position paper shall be the record on the appeal.

APPEAL FROM THE DISTRICT COURT OF TULSA COUNTY, OKLAHOMA

HONORABLE LINDA G. MORRISSEY, TRIAL JUDGE

DISMISSED

John J. Carwile, Clayton J. Chamberlain, MCDONALD, MCCANN, METCALF & CARWILE, LLP, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, for Plaintiff/Appellee

Joel L. Wohlgemuth, Ryan A. Ray, NORMAN WOHLGEMUTH CHANDLER JETER BAR-

NETT & RAY P.C., Tulsa, Oklahoma, for Defendants/Appellants

P. THOMAS THORNBRUGH, CHIEF JUDGE:

¶1 Appellants Louis C. Talarico, III, and LCT Capital, LLC (collectively Talarico) appeal the district court's refusal to grant a new trial of their denied motion to dismiss the libel suit of Appellee H. Michael Krimbill. On review, we find that this decision is not immediately appealable, and we dismiss this appeal on that basis.

BACKGROUND

¶2 This appeal is a companion to Appeal No. 114,777. In Appeal No. 114,777, Talarico appealed the district court's decision denying their motion to dismiss the libel petition of Appellee, Krimbill, pursuant to the Oklahoma Citizens Participation Act, 12 O.S. Supp. 2014 §§ 1430 through 1440 (OCPA or the Act).

¶3 In analyzing the Act, we found that the legislative purpose of the OCPA is to weed out meritless suits while protecting "the rights of a person to file meritorious lawsuits for demonstrable injury." OCPA § 1430. Further, the Act states that it will not "abrogate or lessen any other defense, remedy, immunity or privilege available under other constitutional, statutory, case or common law or rule provisions." OCPA § 1440. The dismissal procedures of the Act should therefore be interpreted in terms of the traditional and established views of what constitutes a meritorious suit.

¶4 After a thorough analysis of the procedural workings of the Act, we determined that the district court did not err in refusing to grant Talarico's motion to dismiss. (See Krimbill v. Talarico, 2018 OK CIV APP 37, __ P.3d__ for the full details of our analysis). Talarico sought certiorari on this decision, which the Supreme Court denied without dissent. Some six months after the district court denied Talarico's dismissal motion, while the matter was on appeal, Talarico filed a petition for new trial on the motion, citing newly discovered evidence that went to the affirmative defense of "truth" in a libel action. The district court denied this petition. Talarico now attempts to appeal the denial of his petition for new trial.

STANDARD OF REVIEW

¶5 "[T]he question of jurisdiction is an issue which is primary and fundamental in each case. This Court must inquire into its own jurisdiction as well as to the jurisdiction of the court from which the appeal is taken, regardless of whether it is raised by the litigants." Baylis v. City of Tulsa, 1989 OK 90, ¶ 6, 780 P.2d 686, citing Cate v. Archon Oil Co., 1985 OK 1, 695 P.2d 1352, n. 12.

ANALYSIS

I. MAY TALARICO FILE A PETITION FOR NEW TRIAL IN THESE CIRCUMSTANCES?

¶6 Krimbill's brief raises the question of whether the decision by the district court was a "trial," the result of which may be contested by an immediately appealable petition for new trial. Established law is clear that many decisions by a district court are not subject to appellate review until the conclusion of the litigation.[1] At the same time, however, 12 O.S. 2011 § 952(b)(2) provides for the immediate appellate review of an order that grants or refuses a new trial. It is possible to argue, therefore, based on § 952, that any decision by a district court that is not immediately reviewable may be made so simply by filing a motion for a "new trial" on that decision.

¶7 This principle appears contrary to the established law that not all decisions by a trial court are within the immediate review jurisdiction of the appellate courts. Two possibilities are thereby presented: either [1] not all decisions by a district court qualify as "trials," and hence not all decisions can be the subject of a petition for "new trial;" or, [2] not all denials of a motion for "new trial" are immediately appealable.

¶8 Title 12 O.S.2011 § 952(b)(2) appears unambiguous that all properly heard and decided motions for new trial are immediately appealable. We must therefore investigate the first option. In Gilliland v. Chronic Pain Associates, Inc., 1995 OK 94, 904 P.2d 73, the Supreme Court rejected the proposition that "every judicial refusal to give a favorable dispositive order in a prejudgment contest" constitutes a final order that "determines the action" or "prevents judgment." The order in this case did not "determine the action" and the Gilliland Court was clear that an order which "prevents a judgment" must "preclude the appealing party from proceeding further in the case for the pursuit of the very relief that is then and there sought."

¶9 The relief sought, and denied in this case was either [1] a declaration that Krimbill could not show a prima facie case for libel, or [2] a declaration that Talarico had an absolute defense to the libel action. We find no indication that Talarico is in any way prevented from pursuing these theories by summary judgment, or utilizing any new evidence he may have to defend his position in this suit, which has not yet proceeded beyond the pleading stage.[2]

¶10 Most recently, in Andrew v. Depani-Sparkes, 2017 OK 42, ¶ 17-18, 396 P.3d 210, the Supreme Court noted that, although motions for reconsideration are not technically recognized, and motions to reconsider may be treated as a § 651 motion for new trial or a motion to vacate pursuant to § 1031.1 or § 1031, not all decisions of the district court are proper subjects in the first instance for a motion for new trial or motion to vacate.[3]

¶11 In this case, the OCPA dismissal decision neither "determines the action" nor prevents Talarico from proceeding further in the case on the same theories, nor does it prevent the presentation of any defense. Nor is it inherently a final order that may be reduced to judgment, any more than a denial of summary judgment constitutes a final order.[4] As an initial basis for decision, we therefore hold that the denial of an OCPA dismissal motion is not a "trial" from which a motion or petition for new trial may be made.

II. EVEN IF A NEW TRIAL IS AVAILABLE IN THESE CIRCUMSTANCES, THE DENIAL OF THE PETITION IS NOT AN IMMEDIATELY APPEALABLE ORDER

¶12 Our conclusion that some equivalent of a final order must occur before a motion for new trial can be made is bolstered by the traditional treatment of denied motions or petitions for new trial on appeal. Title 12 O.S.2011 § 952(b) states that an order which grants or refuses a new trial is an appealable order. However, we find no history of the review of the denial of any motion or petition for new trial that does not involve an underlying final order that may be reduced to judgment or otherwise prevents the proponent from pursuing his or her case.[5] Review is historically confined to two circumstances.

¶13 The first such circumstance is that in which a party files a motion or petition for new trial, alleging error based on the record below, at a time when the underlying final order is not otherwise beyond appeal. Although the issues on review may be constrained by the motion for new trial, our review concentrates on the correctness of the underlying final order, rather than on the motion for new trial. See, by example, Reeds v. Walker, 2006 OK 43, 157 P.3d 100. Hence, it constitutes a review of a final order.

¶14 The second circumstance is that in which a party files a motion or petition for new trial not alleging error based on the record below, but arguing for a vacation of the prior decision on extrinsic grounds such as newly discovered evidence, fraud or irregularity. A denial of a new trial under these circumstances is clearly a final order that precludes the appealing party from proceeding further in pursuit of the relief sought. Both circumstances are, therefore, grounded in a judgment, decree or final order.

¶15 The denial of the new trial petition in this case does not fit either of these "final order" scenarios, because Talarico is in no way prevented from utilizing any new evidence he may have to defend in the still ongoing suit, or prevented from pursuing judgment if the new evidence indicates such a right. The denial of his motion for new trial does not represent a final order or substantive decision on the merits of the case. This finding concurs with our survey of current case law. We find no instance of the law approving of a motion for new trial on the grounds of "newly discovered evidence" unless the proponent is otherwise prevented from raising or utilizing this evidence in the case below.

¶16 We finally note that the initial OCPA dismissal hearing may take place pre-answer, and pre-discovery. Under such circumstances, the likelihood of "newly discovered evidence" after hearing is high. One aim of the OCPA is clearly to provide a quick and simple process for weeding out meritless suits in the early stages of litigation. A district court's refusal to dismiss pursuant to the OCPA is already an appealable order. If it is possible to move for a "new trial" of the original denial of dismissal each time new evidence becomes available, OCPA procedures may make two or more trips to the appellate courts before the merits of the underlying suit are even considered in the district court. Such a structure appears incompatible with the aims of the Act.

CONCLUSION

¶17 We find that the petition in this case did not seek a "new trial" as traditionally defined. Further, the denied petition for new trial in this case bears none of the hallmarks of a judgment, decree or final order, and is not an interlocutory order appealable by right. We therefore find that no appealable order is currently before us.

¶18 DISMISSED.

P. THOMAS THORNBRUGH, CHIEF JUDGE:

1. By example, discovery decisions, evidentiary rulings and denials of summary judgment are traditionally not subject to immediate appeal.

2. The OCPA proceedings have effectively halted this suit for over two years, and Talarico has yet to file an answer.

3. Andrew held that the "motion to reconsider" in that case was neither a motion to vacate ("A motion to reconsider an interlocutory order anterior to judgment is not a § 1031 motion to vacate unless made so by the terms of the statute"), nor was it a motion for new trial filed "after the announcement of the decision on all issues in the case."

4. This common occurrence illustrates the tension between the principle that not all decisions are immediately appealable, but the denial of a motion for new trial is immediately appealable. If there is no restriction, a refusal of summary judgment can be rendered appealable simply by filing a "motion for new trial," and suits could be litigated piecemeal, punctuated by numerous interim reviews by the appellate courts. Andrew at ¶ 17.

5. Lillard v. Meisberger, 1925 OK 633, ¶ 11, 260 P. 1067, notes that:

> While subsection 2 of section 780, Comp. Stats. 1921, provides for appeal from an order granting or refusing a new trial, yet this court will determine for itself whether the record is such as it has jurisdiction to review, and jurisdiction cannot be conferred by a mere order overruling a motion for a new trial, where no judgment was rendered in the case.

Although Lillard rejected appellate jurisdiction on the grounds that the underlying jury verdict had not been reduced to a judgment, it strongly implies that a final decision is a prerequisite to a motion for new trial.

MICHAEL SCHAUF, GUARDIAN OF THE PERSON AND ESTATE OF DANIEL LEE BOLING, III, Plaintiff/Appellant, vs. THE GEO GROUP, a Florida corporation, d/b/a LAWTON CORRECTIONAL FACILITY, Defendant/Appellee, Randy Glenn Mounce, in his individual capacity, and The Wackenhut Corrections Corporation, a Florida corporation, Defendants.

Case No. 116,099. May 11, 2018

APPEAL FROM THE DISTRICT COURT OF COMANCHE COUNTY, OKLAHOMA

HONORABLE GERALD F. NEUWIRTH, JUDGE

AFFIRMED

Stanley D. Monroe, Tulsa, Oklahoma, and Kirsten L. Palfreyman, Tulsa, Oklahoma, for Appellant,

Robert S. Lafferrandre, Carson C. Smith, Pierce, Couch, Hendrickson, Baysinger & Green, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, for Appellee.

Larry Joplin, Judge:

¶1 Plaintiff/Appellant Michael Schauf, Guardian of the Person and Estate of Daniel Lee Boling, III (Plaintiff), seeks review of the trial court's order granting the motion to dismiss of Defendant/Appellee The GEO Group, a Florida corporation, d/b/a Lawton Correctional Facility (Defendant), in Plaintiff's action to recover for personal injuries sustained by Daniel Lee Boling, III, while he was incarcerated at the Lawton Correctional Facility. In this appeal, Plaintiff asserts the trial court erred in holding his claim was barred by the statute of limitations.

¶2 On or about July 3, 2015, Daniel Lee Boling, III, was severely beaten by his cell mate, Randy Glenn Mounce, while the two men were incarcerated at the Lawton Correctional Facility. According to Plaintiff, Daniel Lee Boling, III, has ever since been in a coma.

¶3 In December 2015, Plaintiff Michael Schauf was appointed as the Guardian of the Person and Estate of Daniel Lee Boling, III, his brother. On January 13, 2016, Plaintiff submitted to Defendant a notice of claim to comply with the Oklahoma Governmental Tort Claims Act (OGTCA), 51 O.S. §§151, et seq., §157(A). See also, 57 O.S. §566.4(B).[1]

¶4 To obtain an expert's affidavit of merit pursuant to 12 O.S. §19.1(A)(1),[2] Plaintiff served Defendant with a subpoena duces tecum to compel Defendant's production of records concerning the assault on Daniel Lee Boling. On March 1, 2016, Defendant refused to comply with Plaintiff's subpoena duces tecum as seeking proprietary and confidential information.

¶5 Later in March 2016, Defendant requested the production of documents concerning the assault from the Oklahoma Department of Corrections. DOC produced the requested documents in June 2016. Plaintiff made additional requests for documents from DOC in August 2016 and October 2016, to which DOC responded in October 2016 and January 2017, respectively. According to Plaintiff, his expert issued a §19.1 affidavit of merit March 9, 2017.

¶6 On June 29, 2016, Plaintiff filed his original petition to commence the instant action against Defendant Randy Mounce. On March 13, 2017, Plaintiff filed his amended petition adding additional parties, including Defendant, and asserted claims of negligence.

¶7 On April 6, 2017, Defendant filed its motion to dismiss. Defendant asserted that, in his amended petition, Plaintiff did not allege compliance with the notice-of-claim provisions of the OGTCA, rendering Plaintiff's petition subject to dismissal. Defendant further asserted that Plaintiff did not timely commence the instant action against it within one-hundred eighty (180) days of the date his claim was deemed denied on April 13, 2016, that is, not later than October 13, 2016, and, accordingly, the claim was barred. 51 O.S. §§157(A),[3] (B).[4]

¶8 On April 21, 2017, Plaintiff filed his response.[5] Plaintiff first asserted the claim was timely presented to Defendant within one year of the date of loss as required by 51 O.S. §156(B),[6] and set forth the date, time, place and circumstances of the claim as required by §156(E).[7] Plaintiff secondly asserted that the filing of the amendment to his original petition adding Defendant as a party, albeit more than one hundred eighty days after the deemed denial of his OGTCA claim, related back to the date of filing of his original petition, well within the 180-day period prescribed by §§157(A) and(B), inasmuch as Defendant knew or should have known of its potential liability when served with the OGTCA notice of claim January 13, 2016, and the action against Defendant was therefore timely filed. See 12 O.S. §2015(C).[8] Plaintiff thirdly argued that his failure to allege compliance with the OGTCA notice-of-claim provisions could be cured by amendment of the petition. Alternatively, Plaintiff asserted the 180-day filing period set forth in §157(B) should be equitably tolled during the period Plaintiff was seeking adequate document discovery to obtain the affidavit of merit required by §19.1, particularly considering Defendant's refusal to comply with his subpoena duces tecum and produce documents on March 1, 2016, and that, given the continuing disability of Daniel Lee Boling, Plaintiff timely filed the action well within the two-year limitation of 12 O.S. §96.[9]

¶9 On May 8, 2017, Defendant filed a reply to Plaintiff's response. Defendant first argued the provisions of §2015(C) did not apply because, when Plaintiff filed his original petition, there was no "mistake concerning the identity of the proper party" that should have been named as required for relation back by §2015(C)(3). Defendant secondly argued that §2015(C) does not apply where a plaintiff makes a "tactical" decision not to name a particular defendant and discovers, after passage of the 180-day period, the potential liability of the unnamed defendant. Pan v. Bane, 2006 OK 57, 141 P.3d 555. Defendant also argued that §19.1 did not excuse the untimely filing of the amended petition because (1) whether Plaintiff's negligence claim required the support of an affidavit of merit was questionable, (2) §19.1(B)(1) allowed an extension of time to obtain an affidavit of merit, and (3) Plaintiff was in possession of the documents he needed to obtain his affidavit of merit on October 6, 2016, prior to expiration of the 180-day period on or about October 13, 2016. Moreover, said Defendant, §96 did not apply to extend the time for filing more than ninety (90) days after the date of loss. 51 O.S. §156(E); Hall v. GEO Group, 2014 OK 22, 324 P.3d 399.

¶10 On May 17, 2017, upon consideration of the parties' filings and argument, the trial court granted Defendant's motion, and dismissed Plaintiff's claim against Defendant with prejudice.[10] Plaintiff appeals and the matter stands submitted on the trial court record.[11]

¶11 "'[C]ompliance with the written notice of claim and denial of claim provisions in §§156 and 157 [of the Oklahoma Governmental Tort Claims Act] are prerequisites to the state's consent to be sued and to the exercise of judicial power to remedy the alleged tortious wrong by the government.'" Kennedy v. City of Talihina, 2011 OK CIV APP 108, ¶4, 265 P.3d 757, 759-760. (Citations omitted.) "'[J]udicial power is invoked by the timely filing of the governmental tort claims action pursuant to §157, and . . . expiration of the 180-day time period in §157(B) operates to bar judicial enforcement of the claim against the government to which the Legislature waived sovereign immunity.'" Id. (Citations omitted.) "[W]e review [a] motion to dismiss de novo to determine whether the petition is legally sufficient." Kennedy, 2011 OK CIV APP 108, ¶4, 265 P.3d at 759-760. (Citations omitted.)

¶12 A petition which fails to allege compliance with the notice provisions of §157 is subject to dismissal, but the failure to allege such compliance may be cured by amendment. See, Girdner v. Board of Com'rs, 2009 OK CIV APP 94, ¶24, 227 P.3d 1111, 1116. In his amended petition, Plaintiff failed to allege compliance with the notice of claim provisions, but the pleadings demonstrate Plaintiff indeed complied with §157's notice of claim provisions.

¶13 Plaintiff submitted his notice of claim January 13, 2016, timely under 12 O.S. §96 and 51 O.S. §156(B). By force of §157(A), the claim was deemed denied April 13, 2016. Section 157(B) required Plaintiff to commence a suit against Defendant within 180 days of the deemed denied date, i.e., not later than October 13, 2016.

¶14 Plaintiff commenced his action against Defendant Mounce on June 29, 2016. Plaintiff amended his petition to add Defendant Geo Group as a party on March 13, 2017, more than 180 days after Plaintiff's claim against Defendant Geo Group was deemed denied. The amendment is timely only if (1) it relates back to the date of filing of the original petition naming Defendant Mounce alone, or (2) the 180-day period for commencement of suit after deemed denial of the claim was tolled.

¶15 On the second question, this is not a case where the charged entity has concealed the facts of its liability as to toll the running of the 180-day period, like what happened in Tice v. Pennington, 2001 OK CIV APP 95, 30 P.3d 1164. The basic facts of Mounce's assault on Boling, and the role Defendant's negligence may have played in that assault, have never been in dispute, inasmuch as Plaintiff asserted the basic facts of Defendant's negligence in its initial notice of claim served on Defendant in January 2016.

¶16 Further, while Defendant argues Plaintiff was not required to obtain an affidavit of merit in this ordinary negligence action, it would appear that whether or not Plaintiff was required to obtain a §19.1 affidavit of merit to assert a negligence claim against Defendant, the failure to obtain such an affidavit was not fatal to the earlier assertion of the claim against Defendant because §19.1 permits both an extension of time to obtain such an affidavit, and, upon failure to obtain such an affidavit, directs only a dismissal without prejudice, which would permit the re-assertion of the claim upon obtaining the desired affidavit. And, the record is clear that, prior to expiration of the 180-day period, Plaintiff was possessed of all the documents he needed to obtain the affidavit of merit, which his expert eventually provided.

¶17 On the first question, we have previously observed that an amended pleading relates back to the date of filing of the original pleading if:

> 1. Relation back is permitted by the law that provides the statute of limitations applicable to the action; or
> 2. The claim or defense asserted in the amended pleading arose out of the conduct, transaction, or occurrence set forth or attempted to be set forth in the original pleading; or
> 3. The amendment changes the party or the naming of the party against whom a claim is asserted if paragraph 2 of this subsection is satisfied and, within the period provided by subsection I of Section 2004 of this title for service of the summons and petition, the party to be brought in by amendment:
>
> a. Has received such notice of the institution of the action that he will not be prejudiced in maintaining his defense on the merits; and
> b. Knew or should have known that, but for a mistake concerning the identity of the proper party, the action would have been brought against him.

12 O.S. §2015(C). In the present case, the parties raise no questions concerning §2015(C)(1) or (C)(2). The question here concerns application of §2015(C)(3), and particularly, §2015(C)(3)(b), and that is, whether Plaintiff's failure to name Defendant as a party prior to the expiration of the 180-day period mandated by §157(B) constituted a "mistake concerning the identity of the proper party" as to relate back.

¶18 In Roth v. Mercy Health Center, Inc., 2011 OK 2, 246 P.3d 1079, the Oklahoma Supreme Court held that, for relation back under §2015(C)(2), when new parties are sought to be added by an amended pleading, the proper inquiry focuses on whether the new parties sought to be added "knew or should have known they would have been named as defendants, but for error." 2011 OK 2, ¶26, 246 P.3d 1088.

¶19 But, in Pan v. Bane, 2006 OK 57, 141 P.3d 555, the Oklahoma Supreme Court held that "[a] mistake under Rule 15(c)(3) exists where a plaintiff intended to sue the proper party but misidentified or misnamed him or her in the original pleading and the new party knew within time that he or she would have been sued but for the plaintiff's mistake." 2006 OK 57, ¶¶25, 28, 141 P.3d at 563. And, the Oklahoma Supreme Court in Pan also held that, "when a plaintiff is aware of all possible defendants and makes a tactical decision to name a particular defendant rather than another, only to learn after the statute expires that he has made an error in judgment about liability, it is not a mistake of identity within the rule." 2006 OK 57, ¶28, 141 P.3d at 563.

¶20 We hold the present case falls within the holding of Pan, and that the Plaintiff's failure to name Defendant as a party prior to the expiration of the §157(B) 180-day period was not such a mistake concerning the identity of a party as to qualify for relation back under §2015(C)(3). That is to say, neither Plaintiff nor Defendant ever entertained any doubt that the Defendant was a proper party defendant in the present case. Plaintiff made a decision not to name Defendant as a party, either in his original petition or in an amended pleading filed prior to expiration of the §157(B) 180-day period. We have noted no concealment of the operative facts of Defendant's negligence tolling the 180-day period as in Tice. We have also held the 180-day period was not tolled during the time Plaintiff sought a §19.1 affidavit of merit.

¶21 Plaintiff did not assert a claim against Defendant within 180 days of the date his claim was deemed denied. Plaintiff's amended petition, naming Defendant as a party for the first time, does not relate back to the date of filing of the original petition. The trial court did not err in granting Defendant's motion to dismiss. The order of the trial court is AFFIRMED.

BELL, P.J.; and BUETTNER, J., concur.

Larry Joplin, Judge:

1. That section provides:
No tort action or civil claim may be filed against any employee, agent, or servant of the state, the Department of Corrections, private correctional company, or any county jail or any city jail alleging acts related to the duties of the employee, agent or servant, until all of the notice provisions of the Governmental Tort Claims Act have been fully complied with by the claimant. This requirement shall apply to any claim against an employee of the state, the Department of Corrections, or any county jail or city jail in either their official or individual capacity, and to any claim against a private correctional contractor and its employees for actions taken pursuant to or in connection with a governmental contract.

2. Section 19(A)(1) provides:
In any civil action for negligence wherein the plaintiff shall be required to present the testimony of an expert witness to establish breach of the relevant standard of care and that such breach of duty resulted in harm to the plaintiff, except as provided in subsection B of this section, the plaintiff shall attach to the petition an affidavit attesting that:
a. the plaintiff has consulted and reviewed the facts of the claim with a qualified expert,
b. the plaintiff has obtained a written opinion from a qualified expert that clearly identifies the plaintiff and includes the determination of the expert that, based upon a review of the available material including, but not limited to, applicable records, facts or other relevant material, a reasonable interpretation of the facts supports a finding that the acts or omissions of the defendant against whom the action is brought constituted negligence, and
c. on the basis of the review and consultation of the qualified expert, the plaintiff has concluded that the claim is meritorious and based on good cause.

3. "A person may not initiate a suit against the state or a political subdivision unless the claim has been denied in whole or in part. A claim is deemed denied if the state or political subdivision fails to approve the claim in its entirety within ninety (90) days, . . ."

4. "No action for any cause arising under this act, Section 151 et seq. of this title, shall be maintained unless valid notice has been given and the action is commenced within one hundred eighty (180) days after denial of the claim as set forth in this section. . . ."

5. On April 21, 2017, Plaintiff also dismissed the claim against The Wackenhut Corrections Corporation without prejudice.

6. "[C]laims against the state or a political subdivision are to be presented within one (1) year of the date the loss occurs. A claim against the state or a political subdivision shall be forever barred unless notice thereof is presented within one (1) year after the loss occurs."

7. "The written notice of claim to the state or a political subdivision shall state the date, time, place and circumstances of the claim, the identity of the state agency or agencies involved, the amount of compensation or other relief demanded, the name, address and telephone number of the claimant, the name, address and telephone number of any agent authorized to settle the claim, and any and all other information required to meet the reporting requirements of the Medicare . . . . The time for giving written notice of claim pursuant to the provisions of this section does not include the time during which the person injured is unable due to incapacitation from the injury to give such notice, not exceeding ninety (90) days of incapacity."

8. That section provides:
An amendment of a pleading relates back to the date of the original pleading when:
1. Relation back is permitted by the law that provides the statute of limitations applicable to the action; or
2. The claim or defense asserted in the amended pleading arose out of the conduct, transaction, or occurrence set forth or attempted to be set forth in the original pleading; or
3. The amendment changes the party or the naming of the party against whom a claim is asserted if paragraph 2 of this subsection is satisfied and, within the period provided by subsection I of Section 2004 of this title for service of the summons and petition, the party to be brought in by amendment:
a. Has received such notice of the institution of the action that he will not be prejudiced in maintaining his defense on the merits; and
b. Knew or should have known that, but for a mistake concerning the identity of the proper party, the action would have been brought against him.

9. "If a person entitled to bring an action other than for the recovery of real property, except for a penalty or forfeiture, be, at the time the cause of action accrued, under any legal disability, every such person shall be entitled to bring such action within one (1) year after such disability shall be removed, except that, after the effective date of this section, an action for personal injury to a minor under the age of twelve (12) arising from medical malpractice must be brought by the minor's parent or guardian within seven (7) years of infliction of the injury, provided a minor twelve (12) years of age and older must bring such action within one (1) year after attaining majority, but in no event less than two (2) years from the date of infliction of the injury, and an action for personal injury arising from medical malpractice to a person adjudged incompetent must be brought by the incompetent person's guardian within seven (7) years of infliction of the injury, provided an incompetent who has been adjudged competent must bring such action within one (1) year after the adjudication of such competency, but in no event less than two (2) years from the date of infliction of the injury."

COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS
(Division No. 1)
Friday, December 21, 2018

115,773 — Bank2, an Oklahoma Banking Corporation, Plaintiff/Appellee, v. Alicia Seyler, and Spouse, if any, of Alicia Seyler, and John Doe, Occupant, Defendants/Appellants. Appeal from the District Court of Tulsa County, Oklahoma. Honorable Jefferson D. Sellers, Judge. Alicia Seyler, Appellant/Defendant and mortgagor, seeks review from the district court's January 4, 2017 order denying Seyler's motion to vacate the district court's summary judgment order in favor of Appellee/Plaintiff, Bank2. Bank2 sought judgment against Seyler for a promissory note upon which she allegedly defaulted. Bank2 filed its foreclosure petition on December 2, 2014. Bank2 filed a motion for summary judgment in July 2015 and the district court granted the summary judgment in favor of Bank2 on September 22, 2015, judgment filed on September 29, 2015. On October 28, 2015, Appellant/Seyler filed her motion to dismiss Bank2's petition for lack of standing and motion to vacate the journal entry of judgment; both Seyler's requests were denied by the district court. This appeal resulted. Appellant/Seyler sets out three propositions of error in her appeal. First, Seyler asserts Bank2 has no standing to pursue the foreclosure action it initiated, because the bank did not engage in specific steps required to resolve the indebtedness issues prior to initiating the foreclosure action. Second, Seyler alleges Bank2 failed to comply with federal regulations which are conditions precedent to the cause currently before the court, and both standing and subject matter jurisdiction are lacking as a result. Third, the MERS (Mortgage Electronic Registration Systems, Inc.) mortgage is a nullity under Oklahoma law, depriving the bank of standing and depriving the court of jurisdiction. These issues have been recently considered by this court in the context of a similar case, Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. v. Taylor, 2018 OK CIV APP 24, 417 P.3d 1212. The appellate court reviews a lower court's ruling either vacating or refusing to vacate a judgment using the abuse of discretion standard. Ferguson Enters. Inc. v. H. Webb Enters. Inc., 2000 OK 78, ¶ 5, 13 P.3d 480, 482. Seyler asserted Bank2 lacked standing to bring the foreclosure action, primarily because she alleges the bank failed to comply with mandatory prefiling requirements to meet with the mortgagor to resolve the payment dispute prior to filing the foreclosure. See 24 C.F.R. §203.604. We do not find the bank lacked standing. The bank made multiple attempts to reach out to Seyler prior to bringing the action. In addition, the bank made the original note available for inspection and filed a copy with the petition, a prima facie showing of standing. Wells Fargo v. Taylor, 2018 OK CIV APP 24, ¶7, 417 P.3d at 1215. With respect to Seyler's allegations the bank did not comply with regulations for Housing and Urban Development (HUD), she has failed to demonstrate she has a private right of action for any breach of these regulations and has not demonstrated she can assert an affirmative defense based on these alleged failures. Seyler's MERS objections do not provide a basis for relief. In looking at the parties' intent and considering the mortgage as a contract, we note Appellant/Seyler accepted the loan from Bank2 to finance her house, and Bank2 is the entity which loaned Seyler the funds to purchase the home and brought this action against her for nonpayment. 15 O.S. 2011 §152; Wells Fargo v. Taylor, 2018 OK CIV APP 24, ¶¶18-20, 417 P.3d at 1217-18. Under the circumstances presented in this case, Seyler is estopped from denying the validity of the mortgage in these proceedings. The district court's order denying Appellant's motion to dismiss and motion to vacate the journal entry of judgment is AFFIRMED. Opinion by Joplin, J.; Bell, P.J., and Buettner, J., concur.

116,623 — Harry O'Brien, Plaintiff/Appellee, v. Robert Wayne McGaugh, Defendant/Appellant. Appeal from the District Court of Oklahoma County, Oklahoma. Honorable Aletia Haynes Timmons, Trial Judge. This appeal arises from a civil suit between plaintiff Harry O'Brien (O'Brien) and defendant Robert Wayne McGaugh (McGaugh) pertaining to a physical altercation that arose during an argument regarding the living arrangements of Tiffany Mayes (Ms. Mayes). O'Brien sought damages for injuries sustained from an alleged battery committed by McGaugh. The jury returned a verdict in favor of O'Brien, awarding him $2.4 million in actual damages and $1 million in punitive damages. Because the trial testimony regarding the relationship between McGaugh and Ms. Mayes prior to her reaching the age of majority did not result in undue prejudice, and because the award granted by the jury was supported by the evidence, we AFFIRM the trial court. Opinion by Buettner, J.; Bell, P.J., and Joplin, J., concur.

(Division No. 2)
Thursday, December 20, 2018

116,461 — Town of Vian and Vian Public Authority, Plaintiffs/Appellees, vs. Sequoyah County Water Association, Defendant/Appellant. Appeal from an order of the District Court of Sequoyah County, Hon. Matthew Orendorff, Trial Judge, granting Plaintiff Town of Vian's ("via the Vian Public Works Authority") application for temporary injunctive relief prohibiting Defendant from turning off its water services. Defendant argues the trial court erred in granting the temporary injunction due to an absence of evidence and because an adequate remedy at law existed. However, considering all the evidence on appeal, as we must, we conclude the trial court correctly granted a temporary injunction. First, simply given the contract language in question, Plaintiff has a substantial likelihood of prevailing on the merits in this contractual dispute. Second, the trial court asked Plaintiff's counsel to show "what irreparable harm do you have." Plaintiff's counsel responded that Plaintiff would be irreparably harmed if the water is turned off to essential services such as medical facilities, schools, and fire departments. Third, this threatened injury, i.e., terminating water services to an entire town, clearly outweighs the injury of monetary damages Defendant would suffer pursuant to an injunction. Fourth, the evidence submitted establishes the trial court's injunction was "in the public interest." Because the requirements for temporary injunctive relief were met, the trial court's decision was not clearly against the weight of the evidence or an abuse of discretion. The trial court's decision is affirmed. AFFIRMED. Opinion from the Court of Civil Appeals, Division II, by Wiseman, P.J.; Thornbrugh, C.J., and Fischer, J., concur.

117,003 (Companion to Case No. 117,002) — Todd Landwehr, Plaintiff/Appellant, vs. UHS of Oklahoma, Inc., an Oklahoma corporation, d/b/a St. Mary's Regional Medical Center, an Oklahoma for-profit hospital and Dean Hughes, M.D., an individual, Defendants/Appellees. Ap-peal from an order of the District Court of Garfield County, Hon. Paul K. Woodward, Trial Judge, granting Defendants UHS of Oklahoma, Inc., d/b/a St. Mary's Regional Medical Center's and Dean Hughes' motions to dismiss. Plaintiff seeks reversal alleging trial court error in dismissing his original case for failing to timely serve the petition within 180 days after it was filed and using the 181st day as the beginning date for the one-year period under the Savings Statute, rather than the date the dismissal was actually filed in the original case. Plaintiff further argues trial court error in dismissing the case because Plaintiff had good cause for failing to timely serve the original petition, and even if he did not, the trial court erred in failing to give Plaintiff an opportunity to show good cause prior to dismissal pursuant to 12 O.S. § 2004(I). In the refiled action before us, we find Plaintiff did receive an opportunity to show good cause in response to Defendants' motions to dismiss. However, the trial court determined "Plaintiff failed to show good cause as to why service was not performed" based on Plaintiff's argument that he believed the Oklahoma Supreme Court would find 12 O.S. § 19.1 to be unconstitutional. We concur with the trial court and conclude Plaintiff has not shown good cause for failing to timely serve Defendant. Finding good cause under these circumstances could extend indefinitely, without any action by a plaintiff or the court, the time allowed to serve a defendant in anticipating a final determination by the Oklahoma Supreme Court, which might or might not be favorable. Like the trial court, we cannot find good cause for lack of service under these circumstances. Plaintiff's original petition was therefore deemed dismissed on the 181st day after filing. Plaintiff then had one year from that dismissal date to refile his case pursuant to 12 O.S.2011 § 100. The trial court properly dismissed the second case for failure to refile within that year. We apply the same reasoning to Plaintiff's arguments pertaining to Hughes that we do to those pertaining to St. Mary's. Plaintiff's claims against Defendants were time-barred and cannot be rescued by the savings statute. The trial court's order of dismissal is affirmed. AFFIRMED. Opinion from the Court of Civil Appeals, Division II, by Wiseman, P.J.; Thornbrugh, C.J., concurs, and Fischer, J., concurs in result.

117,002 (Companion to Case No. 117,003) — Todd Landwehr, Plaintiff/Appellant, vs. UHS of Oklahoma, Inc., an Oklahoma corporation, d/b/a St. Mary's Regional Medical Center, an Oklahoma for-profit hospital, Defendant/Appellee. Appeal from an order of the District Court of Garfield County, Hon. Paul K. Woodward, Trial Judge, granting Defendant UHS of Oklahoma, Inc., d/b/a St. Mary's Regional Medical Center's motion to dismiss. Plaintiff seeks reversal alleging trial court error in dismissing his original case for failing to timely serve the petition within 180 days after it was filed "and using the 180th day as the date in which the one-year period under the Savings Statute would begin to apply," rather than "within one year of when the District Court filed its own dismissal." Plaintiff further argues trial court error in dismissing the case because Plaintiff had good cause for failing to timely serve the original petition, and even if he did not, the trial court erred in failing to give Plaintiff an opportunity to show good cause prior to dismissal pursuant to 12 O.S. § 2004(I). In the refiled action before us, we find Plaintiff did receive an opportunity to show good cause in response to Defendant's motion to dismiss. However, the trial court determined "Plaintiff failed to show good cause as to why service was not performed" based on Plaintiff's argument that he believed the Oklahoma Supreme Court would find 12 O.S. § 19.1 to be unconstitutional. We concur with the trial court and conclude Plaintiff has not shown good cause for failing to timely serve Defendant. Finding good cause under these circumstances could extend indefinitely, without any action by a plaintiff or the court, the time allowed to serve a defendant in anticipating a final determination by the Oklahoma Supreme Court, which might or might not be favorable. Like the trial court, we cannot find good cause for lack of service under these circumstances. Plaintiff's original petition was therefore deemed dismissed on the 181st day after filing. Plaintiff then had one year from that dismissal date to refile his case pursuant to 12 O.S.2011 § 100. The trial court properly dismissed the second case for failure to refile within that year. AFFIRMED. Opinion from the Court of Civil Appeals, Division II, by Wiseman, P.J.; Thornbrugh, C.J., concurs, and Fischer, J., concurs in result.

116,952 — Pamela Fortenberry, Plaintiff/Appellant, vs. Tulsa Community College Metro Campus, Defendant/Appellee, and John Doe, a business entity, and Jane Doe, an individual, Defendants. Appeal from an order of the District Court of Tulsa County, Hon. Caroline Wall, Trial Judge, granting Defendant TCC's motion to dismiss. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant was negligent and "instructed Plaintiff to sit in a dangerous chair" without warning her it was a hidden danger. Plaintiff claims the trial court improperly dismissed the case (1) because it found she failed to plead "sufficient facts to present a claim, (2) "without providing time for discovery," and (3) pursuant to Governmental Tort Claims Act (GTCA) exemptions found at 51 O.S. Supp. 2017 §§ 155(4), (5), (13), or (30). Generally, GTCA exemption issues are fact-driven. We conclude that is the case here, and the record contains no discovery to help the court resolve these exemption questions. Defendant has taken the position that the exemptions provided in the GTCA are not defenses to be asserted and proven, but constitute an absolute bar to suit, and Plaintiff, in order to sue the State, is only able to overcome that hurdle by a higher standard of pleading to show the exemptions do not apply. This is not, and cannot be, the law. Discovery has not yet been undertaken, and considering the current posture of the case, any determination on whether these exemptions apply to the facts as alleged, but not yet developed, is premature. We conclude Plaintiff has stated a claim that, if proven, would entitle her to recover damages. The trial court erred in granting Defendant's motion to dismiss based on the stated GTCA exemption "and potential other exemptions." The court apparently found that once invoked by Defendant, GTCA exemptions require dismissal of Plaintiff's negligence claims unless she is able to plead "sufficient facts" "to overcome the exemptions." Granting Defendant's motion to dismiss the case with prejudice on the basis stated in the order required consideration, and adoption, of affirmative GTCA defenses pled by Defendant and acceptance of their validity as a matter of law as applied to Plaintiff's claims as pled. Moving to dismiss on 12 O.S. § 2012(B)(6) grounds is a procedure intended to test the legal sufficiency of the claims pled in the petition, not to test or determine the facts underlying those claims. Whether any of the claimed exemptions applies in this case and the sufficiency of proof to establish any of these exemptions remain to be established by Defendant on remand after further development of facts to demonstrate the applicability of any asserted exemption. This is not a matter of pleading, but of proof. We conclude Plaintiff's claims have been sufficiently pled to withstand Defendant's motion to dismiss and it was erroneous as a matter of law to dismiss these claims. We therefore reverse this dismissal order and remand the case for further proceedings. REVERSED AND REMANDED FOR FURTHER PROCEEDINGS. Opinion from the Court of Civil Appeals, Division II, by Wiseman, P.J.; Thornbrugh, C.J., and Fischer, J., concur.

115,985 — Old Glory Insurance Company, Petitioner, vs. Stonetrust Insurance Company, and The Workers' Compensation Court of Existing Claims, Respondents. Proceeding to Review an Order of The Workers' Compensation Court of Existing Claims. Honorable L. Brad Taylor, Trial Judge. Petitioner Old Glory Insurance Company (Old Glory) appeals from an order of the Workers' Compensation Court of Existing Claims determining the proper carrier and ordering reimbursement between Old Glory and Respondent Stonetrust Insurance Company (Stonetrust). The trial court entered an order determining that Old Glory is the proper insurance carrier, and that Stonetrust is entitled to reimbursement from Old Glory for the payments Stonetrust made on the claim. This Court finds that the Workers' Compensation Court's findings lacked the requisite specificity for there to have been meaningful judicial review. The order of the trial tribunal is VACATED and this matter is REMANDED FOR FURTHER PROCEEDINGS consistent with this opinion. Opinion by Swinton, P.J.; Goree, V.C.J., and Mitchell, J., concur.

116,241 — In the Matter of the Guardianship of Kenneth L. Poyner, an incapacitated person: Charles Dean Baker, Petitioner/Appellant, vs. Karen Thornburg, Jeana Reed, and Selena Scism, Co-Guardians of the Person and Estate of Kenneth L. Poyner, Respondents/Appellees. Appeal from the District Court of Okmulgee County, Oklahoma. Honorable Cynthia D. Pickering, Judge. Petitioner/Appellant Charles Dean Baker appeals from the trial court's order denying his motion to vacate orders permitting Respondents/Appellees Karen Thornburg, Jeana Reed, and Selena Scism, Co-Guardians of the Person and Estate of Kenneth L. Poyner, to sale and/or transfer certain real property. Baker contends the trial court did not have subject matter jurisdiction because it failed to comply with 30 O.S. §3-107 before appointing Co-Guardians and, as a result, the guardianship orders authorizing the sales and/or transfers are void. After de novo review, we find a jurisdictional defect does not appear on the face of the judgment roll. We AFFIRM. Opinion by Mitchell, J.; Swinton, P.J., and Goree, V.C.J., concur.

116,363 — Mortgage Clearing Corporation, Plaintiff/Appellee, vs. Ana Frewaldt, a/k/a Anna C. Frewaldt, a/k/a Anna Frewaldt, Defendant/Appellant, and Jerry D. Frewaldt, a/k/a Jerry Frewaldt; Jane Doe, Spouse of Jerry D. Frewaldt, a/k/a Jerry Frewaldt, if any; John Doe, Spouse of Anna C. Frewaldt, a/k/a Anna Frewaldt, a/k/a Ana Frewaldt, if any; Paul Sowinski, Attorney at Law; Emilyn Ann Arbital, Attorney at Law; Occupants of the Premises of 1213 South 33rd Street, Broken Arrow, OK 74014, Defendants. Appeal from the District Court of Wagoner County, Oklahoma. Honorable Dennis Shook, Trial Judge. Defendant/Appellant Ana Frewaldt (Defendant) appeals the trial court's order granting Plaintiff/Appellee Mortgage Clearing Corporation's (Plaintiff) motion for summary judgment and denying Defendant's counterclaims in a foreclosure action. Defendant argues that the trial court erred in denying her counterclaim based on violations of the Oklahoma Discrimination in Housing Act, 25 O.S. § 1451, et seq. Plaintiff argues that Defendant failed to establish any facts supporting her claims, and that the evidence establishes that no valid claim for violations of the discrimination statute was presented. We agree that there was no evidence to support an inference that Plaintiff's actions prior to and throughout the foreclosure proceedings were taken because of Defendant's race, gender, or national origin. We AFFIRM. Opinion by Swinton, P.J.; Goree, V.C.J., and Mitchell, J., concur.

116,895 — Jimcy McGirt, Plaintiff/Appellant, vs. Michael Roach, Chairman, Board of Corrections; Janice Hill, DOC Dietitian; Stella Ezugha, Food Services Quality Assurance Coordinator; Kelli Curry, Food Services Manager III, Defendants/Appellees. Appeal from the District Court of Oklahoma County, Oklahoma. Honorable Trevor Pemberton, Trial Judge. Appellant, Jimcy McGirt, an inmate in the custody of the Department of Corrections (DOC), filed his Pro se Petition for Declaratory Judgment in district court pursuant to the Declaratory Judgment Act, 12 O.S.§651 et seq. Appellant requested three DOC operational policies be declared invalid. The policies at issue were the subject of the inmate's previous administrative grievance proceedings. The grievances were either approved or denied. The district court correctly dismissed Appellant's claim pursuant to 12 O.S. §2012(b)(6). Appellant failed to state any cognizable legal theory upon which declaratory judgment may be rendered. The court's jurisdiction pursuant to the Act requires a justiciable controversy. Additionally, the Act does not apply to review of agency orders. AFFIRMED. Opinion by Goree, V.C.J.; Swinton, P.J., and Mitchell, J., concur.

116,702 (Companion with 115,578) — Norma Jean Schritter, individually and as Trustee of the Norma Jean Schritter Living Trust, Plaintiff/Appellee, v. Ernie Schritter, individually and as Trustee of the Ernie Schritter Living Trust, Defendant/Appellant. Appeal from the District Court of Canadian County, Hon. Paul Hesse, Trial Judge. In a companion appeal, we concluded that Appellant's arguments challenging the trial court's rescission of a certain deed, as well as Appellant's arguments challenging the trial court's denial of a continuance of an underlying hearing, were unpersuasive. Thus, in that appeal, we affirmed the trial court's two orders, filed in October 2016 and October 2017, setting forth these determinations. The present appeal was taken from the trial court's denial of Appellant's motion to vacate the trial court's October 2017 order. In particular, Appellant requested that the trial court vacate its order pursuant to the trial court's term-time authority, and, on appeal, Appellant contends the trial court abused its discretion because it did not hold a hearing on this motion. Oklahoma District Court Rule 4(h) provides that motions may be decided without a hearing. Okla. Dist. Ct. R. 4(h), 12 O.S. Supp. 2013, ch. 2, app. Thus, to the extent Appellant is arguing the trial court automatically abused its discretion as a matter of law by failing to hold a hearing on Appellant's term-time motion, we reject this argument. Appellant also argues the trial court was "duty bound" to hold a hearing because Appellee attached newly-discovered evidentiary materials to its response to Appellant's motion. We also find this argument to be unpersuasive. Even taking as true Appellant's assertion that the materials attached to Appellee's response to the motion to vacate include new and previously undisclosed information, Appellant's argument fails because Appellant does not argue the new and previously undisclosed information attached to Appellee's response supports any sufficient cause for the granting of Appellant's post-judgment motion. In addition, even if Appellant had set forth such a basis, this Court previously affirmed the trial court's October 2017 Order in the prior appeal, and this Court's prior Opinion affirming the underlying determinations of the trial court renders harmless any error in the trial court's failure to hold a hearing on Appellant's term-time motion attacking the October 2017 Order. For these reasons, we affirm the trial court's order denying Appellant's motion. AFFIRMED. Opinion from Court of Civil Appeals, Division IV, by Barnes, P.J.; Goodman, J., and Rapp, J., concur.

116,503 — In Re The Marriage Of: Heather Marie Morgan, now Gruenberg, Petitioner/Appellee, v. Mark Ray Morgan, Respondent/Appellant. Appeal from an Order of the District Court of Rogers County, Hon. Lara M. Russell, Trial Judge. Trial court respondent, Mark Ray Morgan, (Father) appeals the trial court's Order for Parental Support of a Disabled Adult Child ordering Father to pay support for his disabled adult son. Father also appeals the trial court's order awarding attorney's fees to Heather Marie Morgan, now Gruenberg (Mother). Although the trial court did not err in determining Mother is entitled to support for SCM pursuant to Title 43 O.S.2001 § 112.1A, the trial court did err in using only the Oklahoma Child Support Guidelines to calculate the support. The standard under Section 112.1A(E) requires a more individualized inquiry into the needs of an adult child with disabilities. Section 112.1A is not susceptible to a generalized formula, such as the Child Support Guidelines, to calculate support for a person who has medical or psychological needs unique to that person. Unlike the general Child Support Guidelines, under Section 112.1A, the court must consider the factors set forth in Section 112.1A(E) in determining the amount of support required to meet the individualized needs of a post-majority child with disabilities. The issue of the amount of support owed under Section 112.1A is reversed and remanded to the trial court to calculate support pursuant to the instructions set forth in this Opinion. This Court further finds the trial court erred in awarding Mother a judgment for past due support for SCM and the trial court's judgment for past due child support is vacated. In all other respects, the trial court's Order for Parental Support of a Disabled Adult Child is affirmed. The trial court's Order on Petitioner's Application for Attorney Fees is affirmed. AFFIRMED IN PART, REVERSED IN PART AND REMANDED, AND VACATED IN PART. Opinion from Court of Civil Appeals, Division IV, by Rapp, J.; Barnes, P.J., and Goodman, J., concur.

117,325 — Nathan J. Powell, Plaintiff/Appellant, v. State of Oklahoma ex rel. Department of Public Safety, Defendant/Appellee. Appeal from the District Court of Oklahoma County, Hon. James B. Croy, Trial Judge. The Oklahoma Department of Public Safety (DPS) entered an order revoking the driving privileges of Appellant (Powell) for 180 days. Powell appealed this order to the district court, which sustained in part and modified in part the DPS order. The district court modified the order to allow "Class D privileges" so that Powell can operate a "vehicle equipped with an ignition interlock device," but otherwise affirmed the license revocation. Powell now seeks review of the district court's order. It is undisputed that Powell was arrested for driving under the influence, that he agreed to take the State's breath test, that a breath test was performed on an Intoxilyzer 8000, and that the results of the test exceeded the legal limit. However, DPS bore the burden of proving in the district court that a breath test was performed on a properly maintained testing device, yet the district court appears to have placed the burden on the driver, stating at the hearing as follows: "This is a driver's license revocation appeal that comes on the merits placing the burden on the driver." On the other hand, the district court ruled in Powell's favor when Powell objected on the basis of hearsay to the admission of certain documents of the Oklahoma Board of Tests for Alcohol and Drug Influence (BOT) which DPS sought to admit to show that the breathalyzer was properly maintained. However, a breathalyzer maintenance log is admissible under the public records exception to the hearsay rule. See, e.g., Derrick v. State ex rel. Dep't of Pub. Safety, 2007 OK CIV APP 56, ¶ 14, 164 P.3d 250; Clark v. State ex rel. Dep't of Pub. Safety, 2007 OK CIV APP 12, ¶¶ 24-27, 153 P.3d 77. In the present case, the district court found in favor of DPS, but erred in placing the burden of proof on Powell. The district court also erred in refusing, on the basis of hearsay, to admit the BOT documents offered by DPS. For these reasons, we conclude a new hearing is warranted. We reverse the district court's order, and we remand this case to the district court for further proceedings consistent with this Opinion. REVERSED AND REMANDED FOR FURTHER PROCEEDINGS. Opinion from Court of Civil Appeals, Division IV, by Barnes, P.J.; Rapp, J., and Goodman, J., concur.

Appeal from an Order of the District Court of Wagoner County, Hon. Jeff Payton, Trial Judge. Ky Vargas, Michiele Vargas, Andreas Bader, Eileen Bader, Paul Gibson and Tracy Gibson (collectively, "Plaintiffs") appeal a June 6, 2016, judgment entered on a jury verdict. Plaintiffs, as well as David Steeber, individually and as trustee of the Tracy J. Steeber 2009 Revocable Trust, Tracy Steeber, individually and as trustee of the Tracy J. Steeber 2009 Revocable Trust, the Tracy J. Steeber 2009 Revocable Trust, Dennis Dorsey, individually and as President of Timber Crest I Owners Association, Inc., and Timber Crest I Owners Association, Inc. (collectively, "Defendants"), also appeal a December 14, 2106, order awarding Plaintiffs and Defendants an attorney's fee. Based upon our review of the record and applicable law, the trial court's June 6, 2016, journal entry upon jury verdict is affirmed. The trial court's December 14, 2016, order awarding Plaintiffs attorney's fees is in error and is reversed. The order is affirmed in all other respects. AFFIRMED IN PART, REVERSED IN PART. Opinion from Court of Civil Appeals, Division IV, by Rapp, J.; Barnes, P.J., and Thornbrugh, C.J. (sitting by designation), concur.
