

My Hero

Name: Amelia K wok

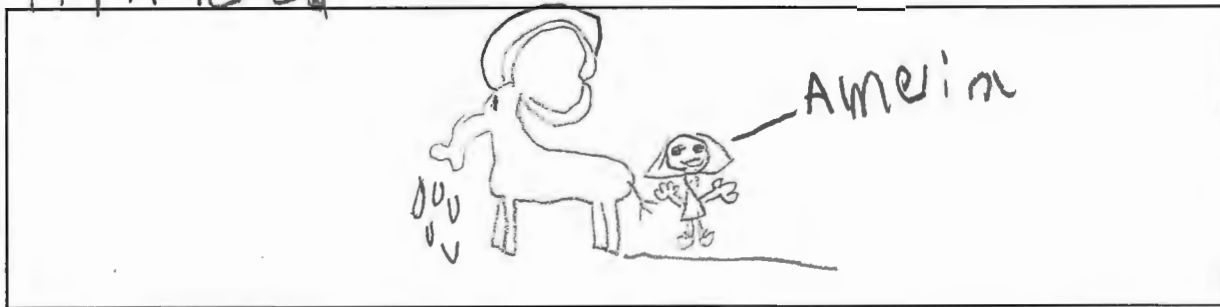

My hero is Amelia Earhart

Amelia is brave

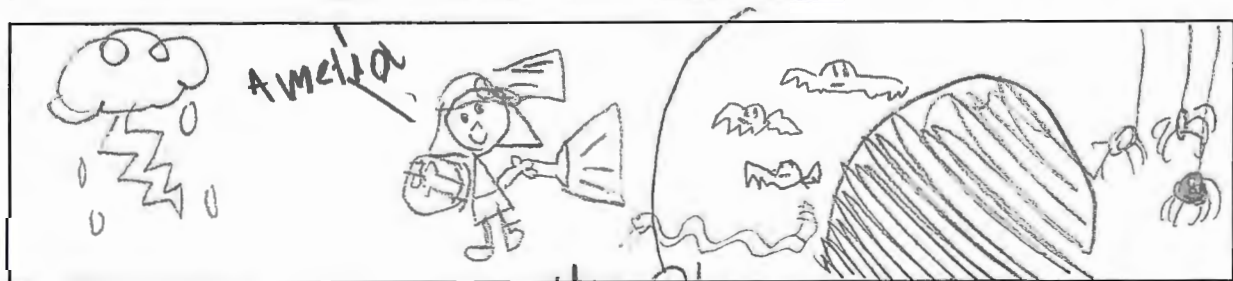

I like her because she dreams big

She was the 1st woman to fly across the Atlantic ocean

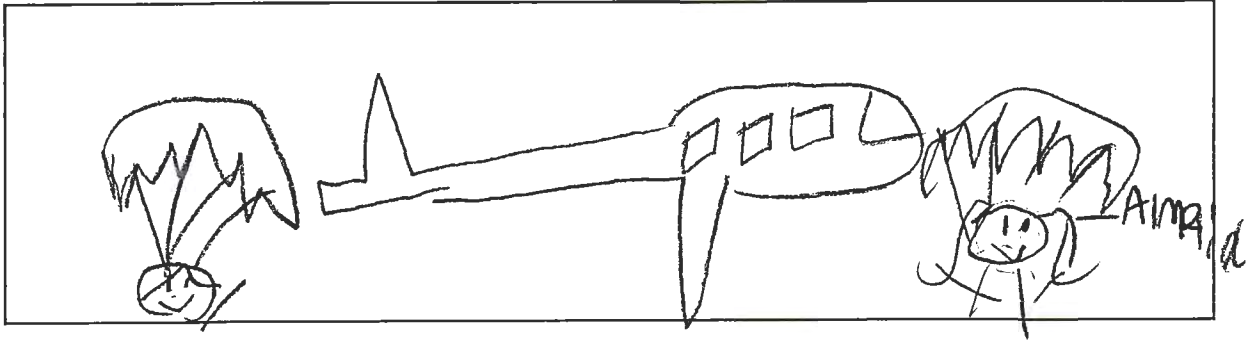

She encourages me to believe in big things

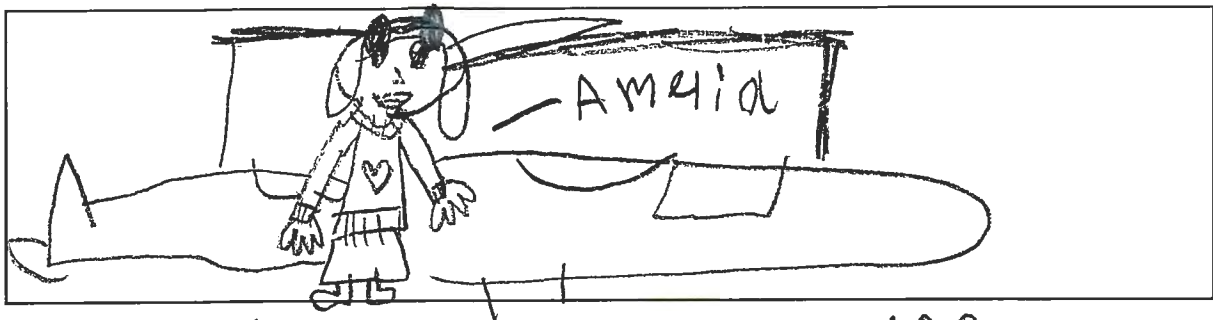

I like it when heroes are brave because I can be braver

New things are hard, like moving an elephant by yourself, but you can do it if you try and you ask my daddy to help

I've never been in an airplane, but it would be great to see the Atlantic ocean

Heroes like Amelia make differences on land and air

My hero is Amelia Earhart.
