

Draw the other half of the Capitol building.

In a democracy, we vote for the people who make our laws. They are called the legislative branch of government. The Capitol is where they discuss and vote on bills that become laws.

Law Day is a public community service of the Oklahoma Bar Association.
Visit www.okbar.org/lawday
for more information.

Draw what the children are voting on in their classroom.

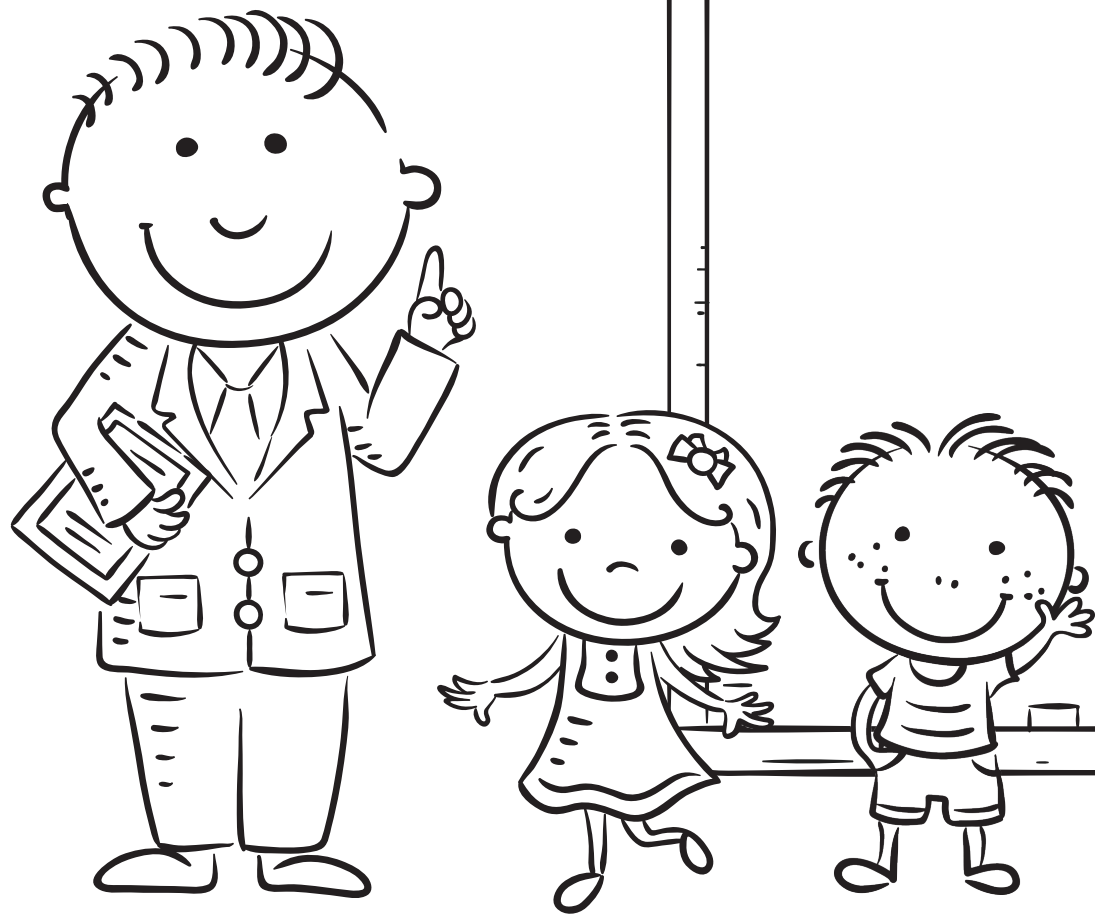

The word democracy comes from two Greek words that mean “rule by the people.” This means that people get to have a say in how the government is run through voting.

Law Day is a public community service of the Oklahoma Bar Association. Visit www.okbar.org/lawday for more information.

In a democracy, people get to choose the president. The process of choosing is called an election.

In 2024, the United States will hold its 60th presidential election. Draw who you think the next president will be.

Law Day is a public community service of the Oklahoma Bar Association. Visit www.okbar.org/lawday for more information.

