Oklahoma Law Day prompt

Oklahoma

Oklahoma has experienced a range of its history

both past and present

These experiences have shaped Oklahoma into the wonderful state

we live in today.

Many outlaw gangs

lived in Oklahoma Territory along with many Indian tribes.

Today Oklahoma is a strong State. Native American tribes contribute to many communities by providing employment opportunities. There are many cultural festivals

in Oklahoma. Indian Pow wows, Rocklahoma and more-

Many important people have called Oklahoma home.

One such person was

3rd Lyon
Lincoln pryor

Bass Reeves was the first Black US Marshal and he arrested over 3,000 outlaws and criminals. he fell

in a hole and Indian that he was a spirit.

and he was a slave
and he ran away.

Oklahoma is a great

state to live in studying its history helps me

understand how to improve our state.
