

Discrimination

If people didn't always discriminate,
Then all would not feel so much hate.

When they just look at
Your gender,race,shapes, and sizes,
They don't truly see you are the
Great prizes...

When you say mean things
That puts you down.
We hear them,we know them
A democracy recognizes them.