

The rule of law and the American Dream

Martin Luther King Jr. gave the I have a dream speech. He wanted everything to be fair

No matter what your color is, people should be able to go to go any school or business that they like! He helped make segregation illegal.

The anti-slavery law was helped by Harriet Tubman and others. People can own property and not be property! Abraham Lincoln helped make the 13th amendment about this.

The laws also say people can't steal your property or ideas.

All these things help the American dream!
